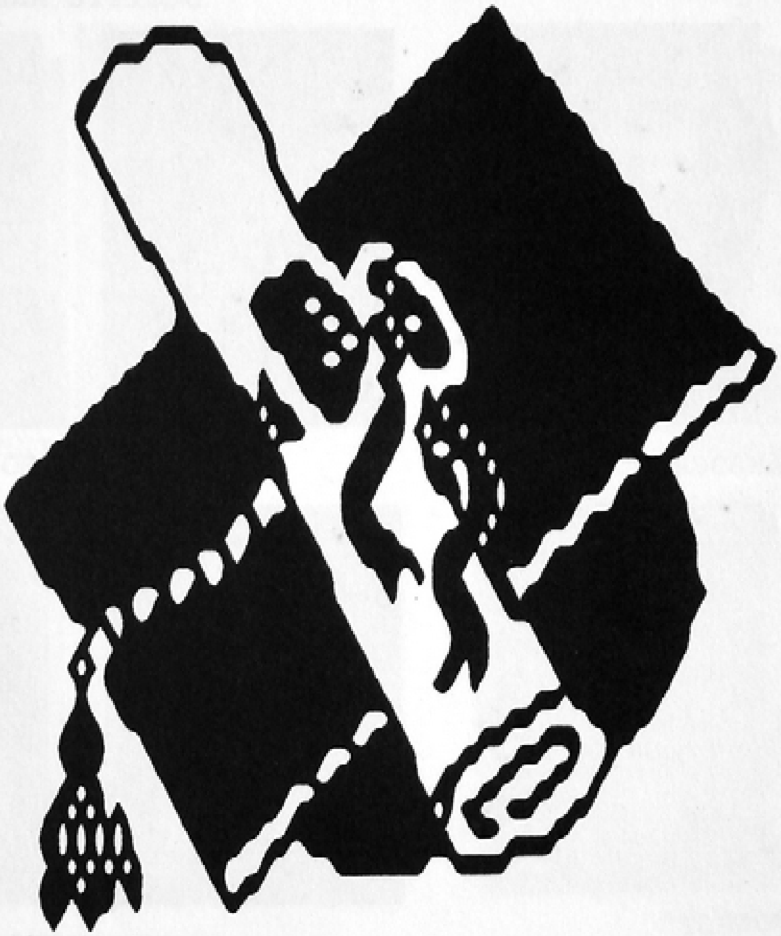
SENIORS



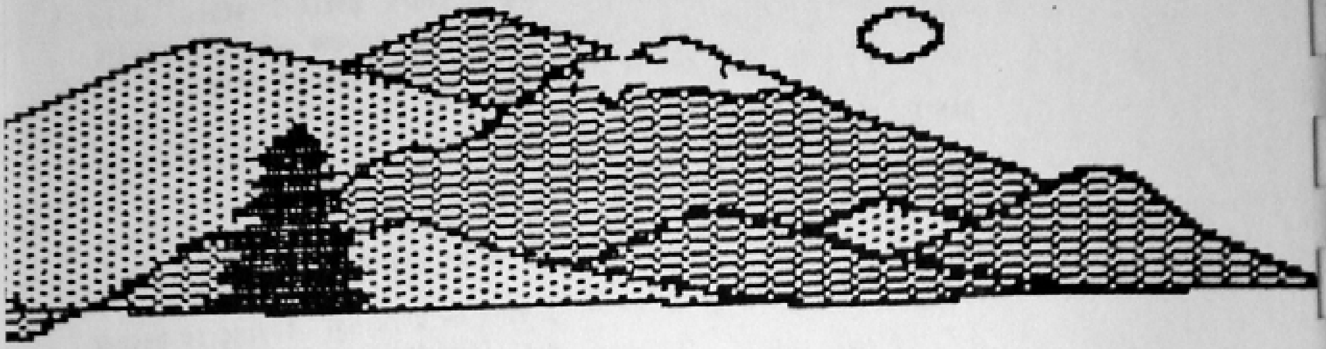
'92

ANDY ALDERMAN	Selling pencils on main street in Minnehaha.
BARBARA R. ALLEN	A successful wife and businesswoman.
CAROL ARBOGAST	Working in an office and married.
JOE ARBOGAST	Head of a big horse ranch in Texas.
DONNA ARMSTRONG	Married and working as a lab technician.
ARLENE BAKER	Married with two children and working for a business in their computer department.
MICHAEL ALLEN BARB	Working with a major college basketball team as the head athletic trainer and earning $175,000.00 a year;also the head of the consultant staff for talent scouts.
SHANNON BARKLEY	A rich career woman with a beach front home and restaurant.
DUKE BEBOUT	Playing golf on the PGA tour.
CHRISTY BENNETT	Married and working in a office.
JEFF BEVERAGE	In North Carolina married to a great girl with a business of my own.
MICHAEL BEVERAGE	In Florida working for NASA searching for pieces of space shuttles on the bottom of the ocean; married to Donna with one brat of a kid; driving my Lamborghini; and living in a six million dollar mansion.
VADA BURGESS	Working as a physician's assistant and married.
SANDY BURNER	Working as a secretary and married.
MIKE BURNS	Sweeping floors for IBM.
R. W. BURNS	In L.A. as a playboy bodyguard for centerfolds.

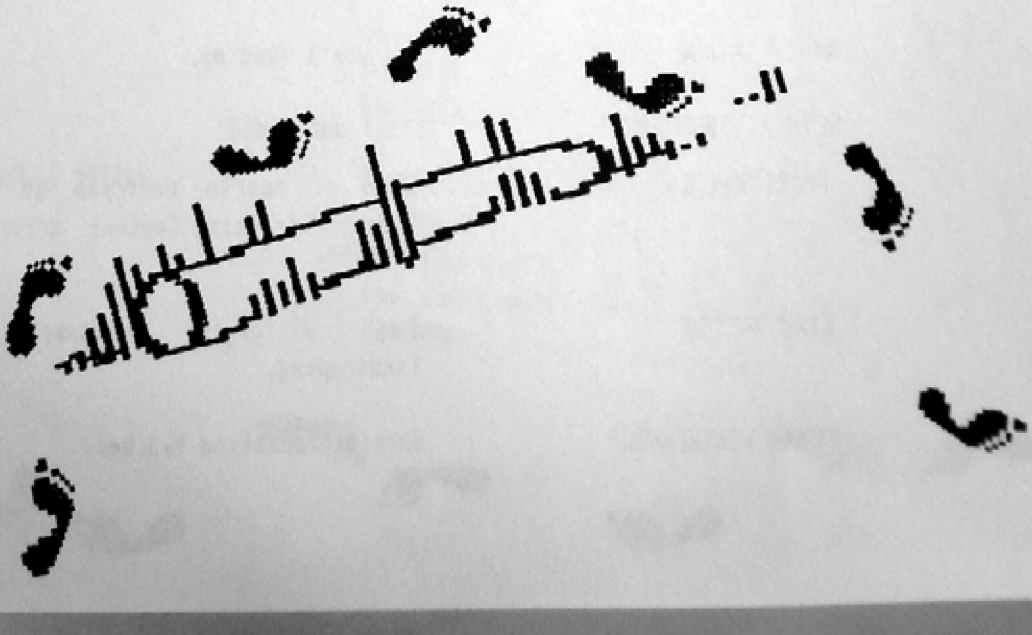
VICKIE L. CASSELL	Still happily married with two children.
JOHN COE	CIA agent for Nicaragua.
BRENDA CURRY	Managing my own business firm, B. C. and Associates, Inc.
TONYA MICHELE (SHELLEY) DEAN	Married to Shawn Ervine; working for an accounting agency.
CINDY DILLY	Singing back-up for Pat Benatar.
LISA DOSS	Married and working.
TINA DOYLE	Married happily to Rick Beckwith; raising and training quarter horses.
TONYA DUNZ	Married to Brad, have some kids, and be very rich.
ROBERT EISTER	Teaching electronic theory at a university.
CONNIE MARIE ERVINE	Married with two or three children; working as a LPN.
CAROL FAULKNIER	Owner of Chippendale's.
LESLIE ANN FITZGERALD	Serving in the U.S. Air Force.
BRAD FLEMING	Working somewhere at something.
DOUG FRIEL	Working as a professional scout and making $40,000 a year.
RICK FRIEL	President of a computer aided architectural design studio in Hawaii.
DAVID GIBSON	Having a lot of money.
DENNIS GIBSON	Flying an airplane.
MADORA SUE GIBSON	Happily married to Keith Shoemaker, living on a farm, raising my family, being able to have a part-time job; enjoying camping and traveling.
MARY GREY	Married with two or three children.

LEIGH ANNE HAYES	Dispensing drugs to patients in a famous hospital.
MISSY HILL	Following Joan River's footsteps appearing on the Tonight Show.
VALERIE HOBART	Married and living in Pocahontas County.
JULIE HUFFMAN	Directing and starring in one of my many award winning films.
MARY KAY IRVINE	Married to Joe Clendenen; working as a business manager in another state.
LORETTA IRVINE	Living it up in Pheonix, Arizona.
JODY LYNN LAMBERT	Still trying to get out of the 12th grade.
MANDY LANDIS	Running the world's largest architectural department.
TONY LANDIS	President of my own corporation.
MICHELLE MADDY	The world's "smallest judge".
RANDY MADDY	Still trying to be found.
LISA MCCOMB	Married; and a successful businesswoman.
DONNA MEADOWS	Married and still trying to get through my freshman year of college.
REBECCA M. MORRIS	Working as a photographer in a partnership with my sister; married to a great guy with the POSSIBILITY of children; living in a nice house in North Carolina and still keeping in touch with my classmates.
MICHELLE MOSPAN	Happily married with two children in the house of my dreams. I have just finished designing the interior of the castles belonging to Prince and Madonna.

RALPH MOORE	In the army and half way through my twenty years until I retire. Also starting the ground work for plans of building my own gun shop.
DANIEL MULLENS	Asleep.
KIM POOLE	Trying to keep my daughter, Casey, out of my footsteps.
TOMMIE PRITT	I will be working, trying to become a millionaire.
STEPHANIE RADCLIFF	An Olympic sprinter replacing Mary Lou Retton on the TV commercials.
JOHNNA RALSTON	Accountant/ Married ???
ROBERT RILEY	Replacing Johnny Carson on the Tonight Show.
TIM RILEY	Working in Richmond.
TINA ROACH	Married and working.
STEFANIE ROSE	Editor-in-chief of Playgirl.
CARL SEIELSTAD	In ten years I will probably be alive, but in 100 years I should be dead.
J. L. SCHRINER	Executive head of a big company.
DANNY STANLEY	Still in the navy, probably in the 6th Fleet.
KIM STANLEY	Working with deaf children.
RANDY TAYLOR	You won't find me.
BETH A. THOMPSON	Still undecided!
SHARI VANCE	Head of sports medicine at the Olympic Training Center; driving a Porsche.
KIRK WALTON	Tim Wilfong's partner in landscaping.
CLARA WEATHERHOLT	Special education teacher.



TIM WILFONG	Kirk Walton's partner in landscaping.
JOE WILLIAMS	Working on a car somewhere on the road.
ANGELA WILSON	In college.



SENIOR
superlatives

MOST BASHFUL

ROBERT RILEY
SANDY BURNER

Biggest Brown Nose

Mike Bevenage
Johnna Ralston

Biggest Mastermind

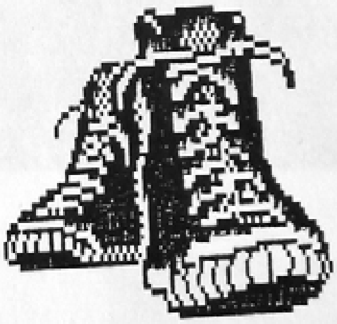
Carl Sefelstad
Shari Vance

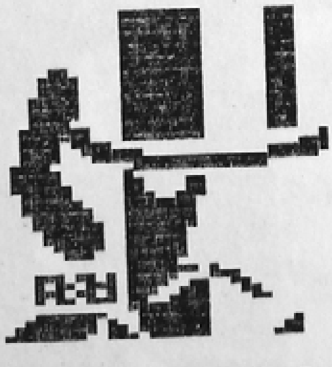
MOST DEPENDABLE

Rick Friel
Shannon Barkley

MOST ATHLETIC

KIRK WALTON
MARY McCLOUD



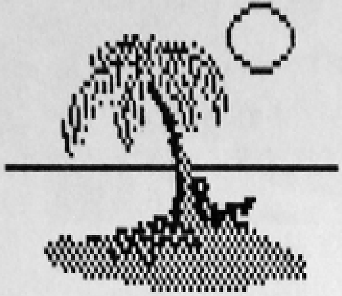


BRAD FLEMING
SHELLEY DEAN

BEST DRESSED

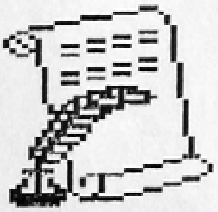
laziest

darrell pingley
julie huffman



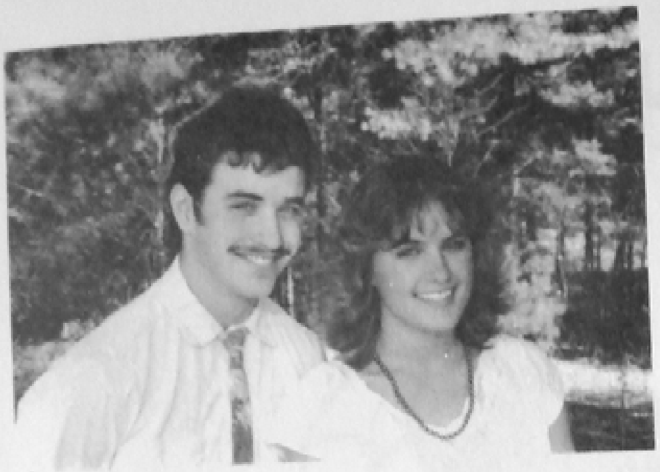
MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED

CARL SEIELSTAD
LEIGH ANNE HAYES



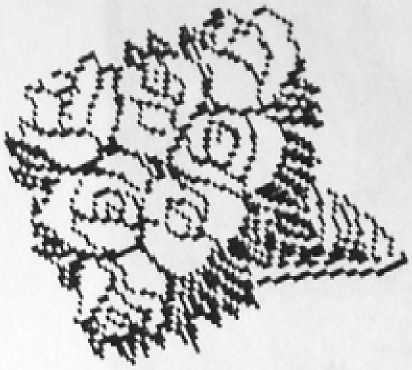
BIGGEST FLIRT

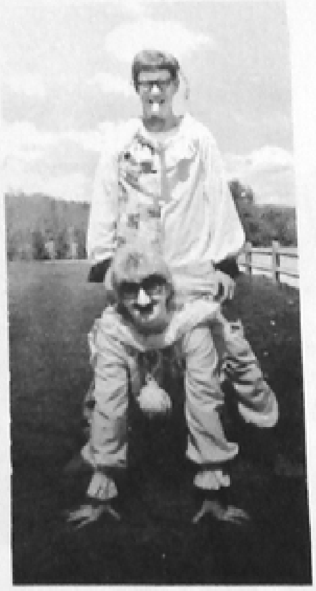
R.W. BURNS
MISSY HILL



Best Looking

Brad Fleming
Julie Huffman



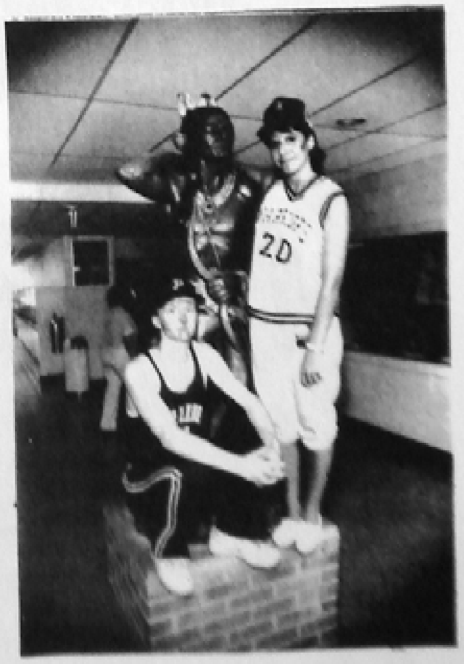


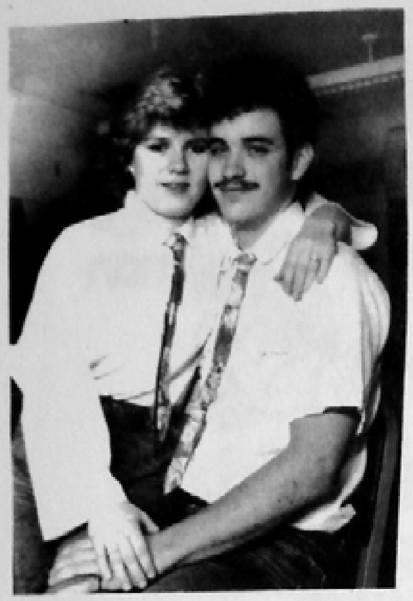
CLASS CLOWNS

TIM WILFONG
ELIZABETH STEVENSON

MOST SCHOOL SPIRIT

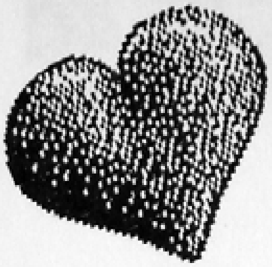
MIKE BEVERAGE
MARY McCLOUD





CUTEST COUPLE

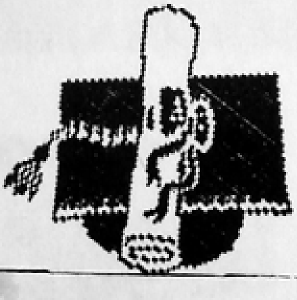
BRAD FLEMING
TONYA DUNZ



Most Intelligent

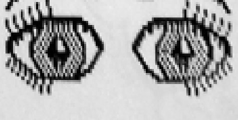
Carl Seielstad
Leigh Anne Hayes

URANUS
WEBSTER'S UNABRIDGED DICTIONARY
WEBSTER'S UNABRIDGED DICTIONARY



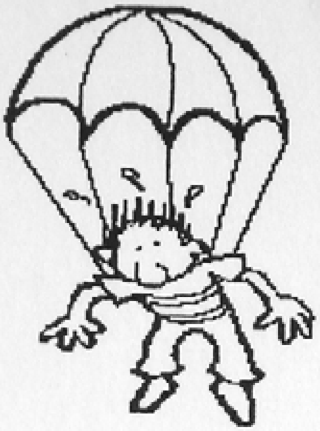
Prettiest Eyes

Brad Fleming
Donna Meadows



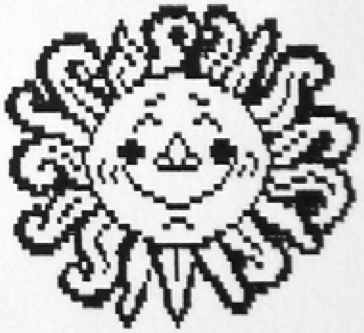
MOST ENERGETIC

MIKE BEVERAGE
MARY GREY

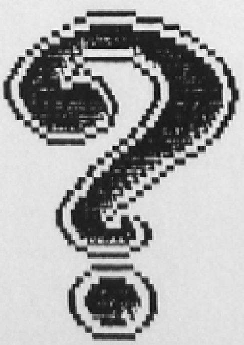


Best Personality

Mike Shank
Shannon Barkley



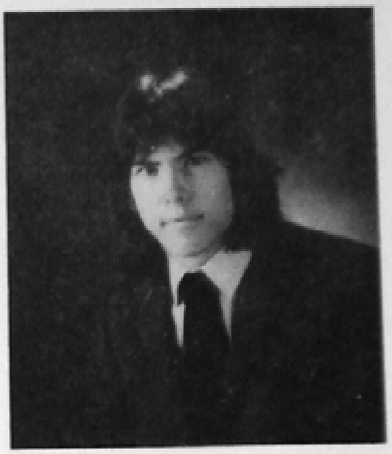
Best Excuse Giver



John Coe
Missy Hill

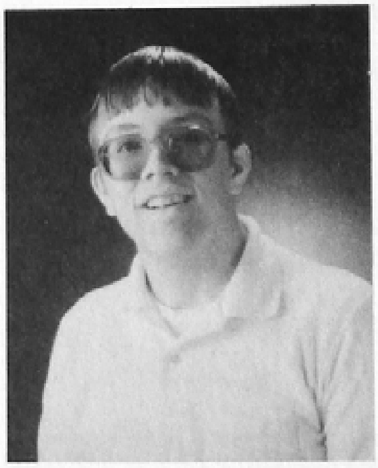
Traci Alderman

Jennifer Akers



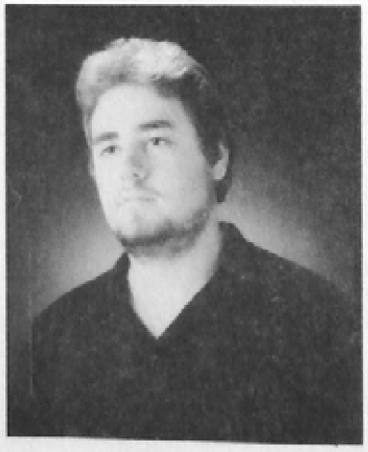
Chris Alikakos

Dreama Anderson



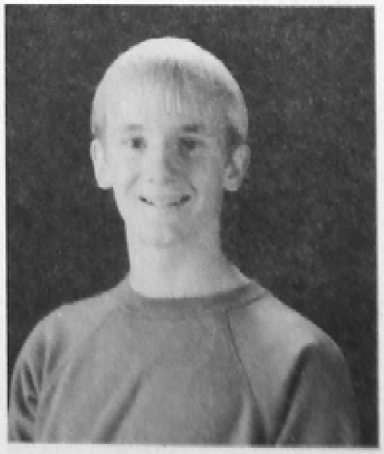
Paul Barrett

Jeanette Barton

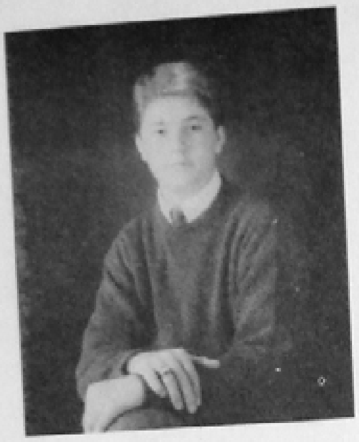


Dan Bennett

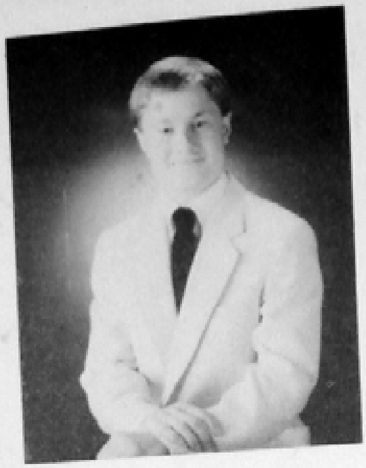
Rosella Beverage



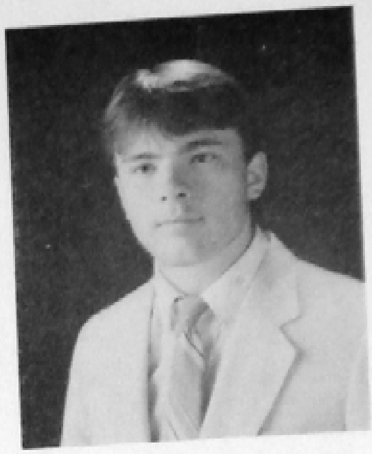
Brian Beverage



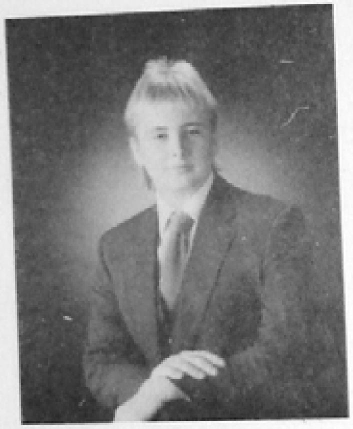
John Broyles



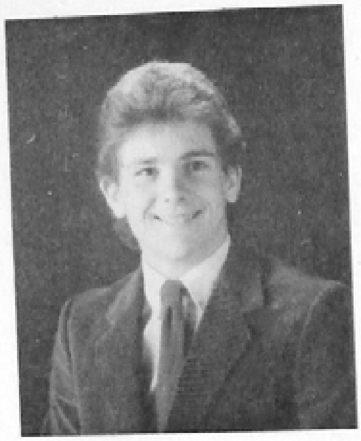
Mike Buzzard



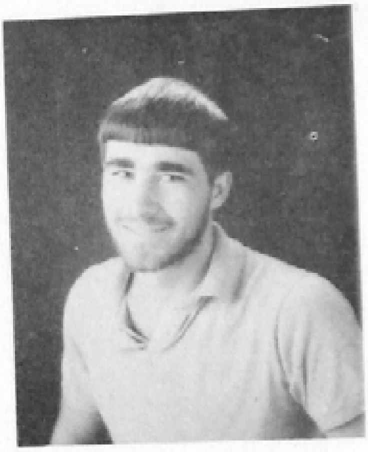
Danny Carpenter



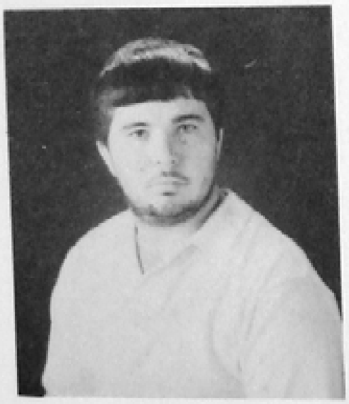
Frankie Cassell



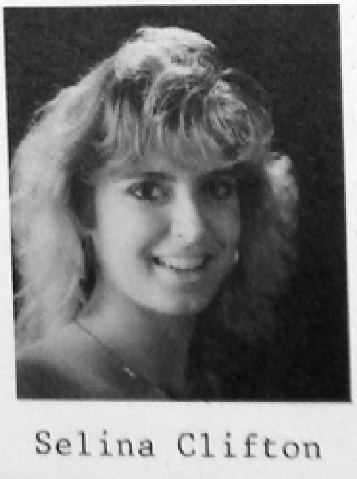
Randy Casteel



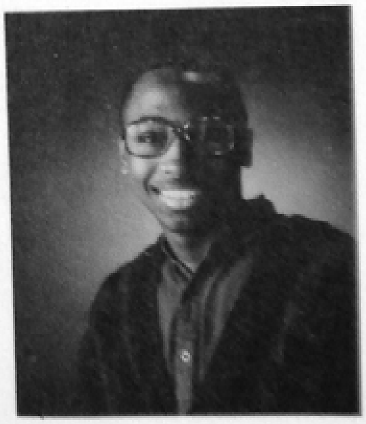
Denton Circosta



Nick Circosta



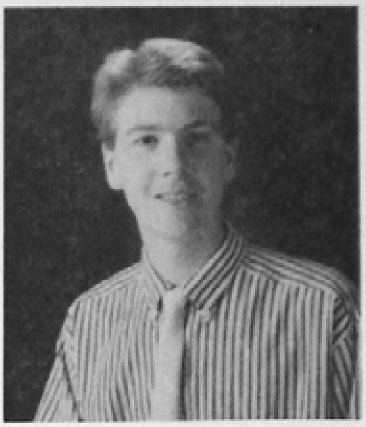
Selina Clifton



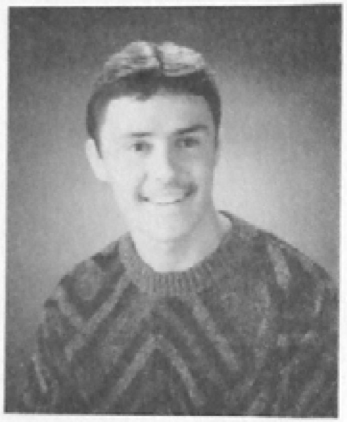
David Coit

Donna Conley

Jamie Collins

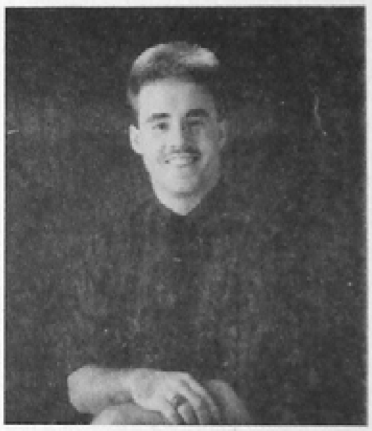


Bill Coughlin



Tim Dean

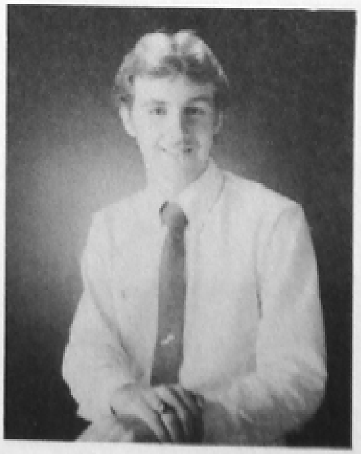
Teresa Doyle



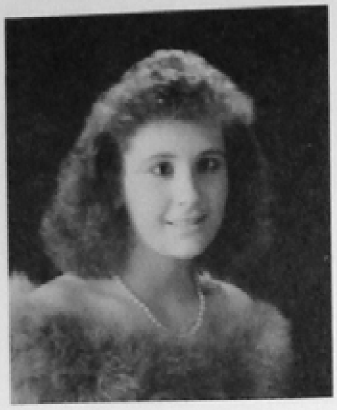
Bill Doyle

Missy Duncan

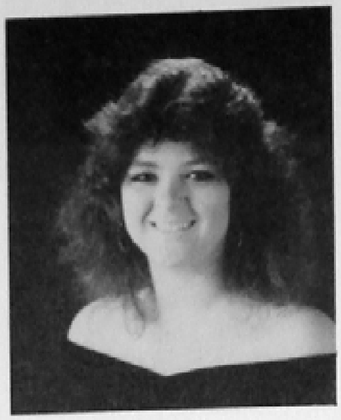
Ronnie Friel



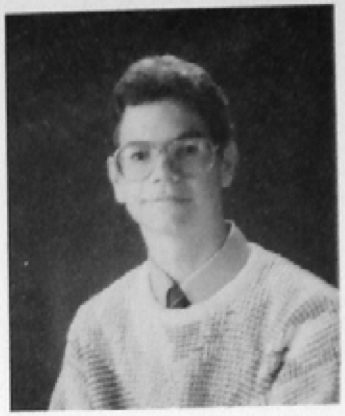
Monte Friel



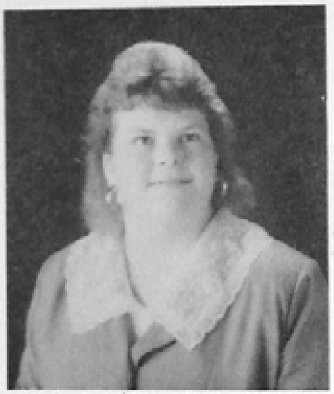
Mary Ann Galford



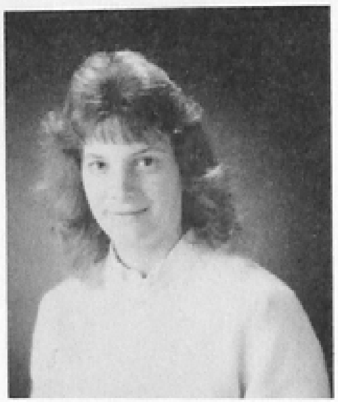
Marcella Rexrode



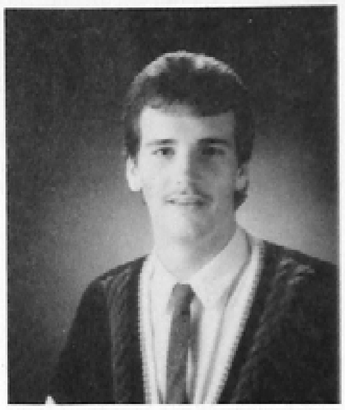
Jimmy Grimes



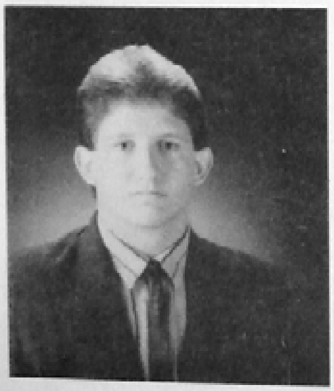
Marsha Grimes



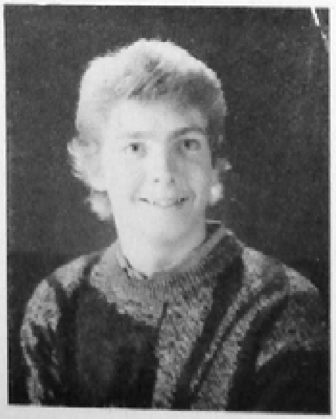
Pam Grogg



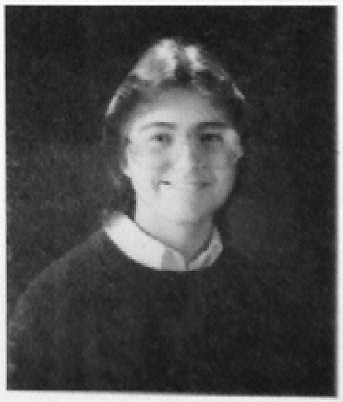
Jesse Groseclose



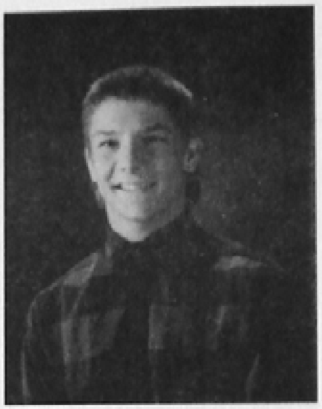
Kevin Halterman



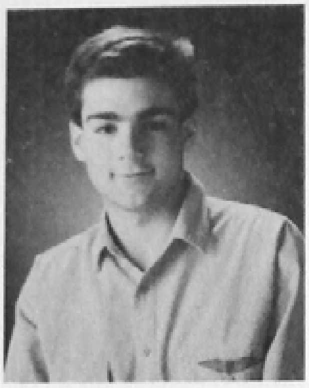
John Hannah



Nancy Hefner



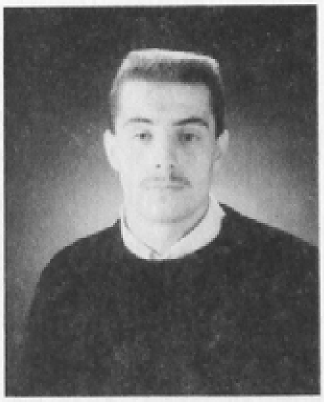
Kenney Hill



Brian Helmick

Michelle Hiner

Gina Jack



Ron Kelley

Sherry Kerns

Regina Mullenax

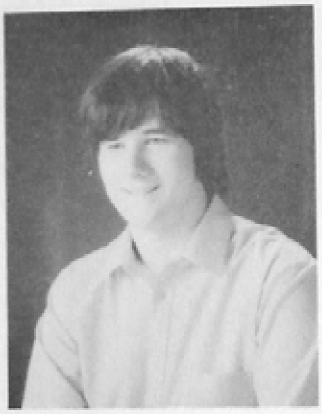
Debbie Kiner

Mary Kinder

Robbie Liptrap

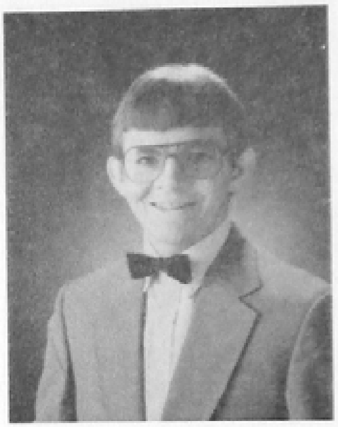
Becky Long

John Lovelace

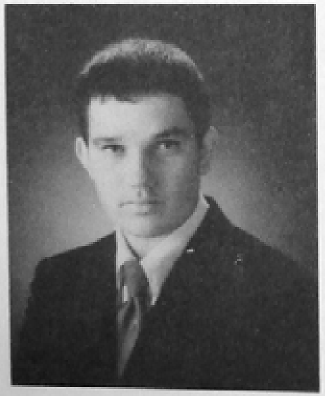


Robert Mayle

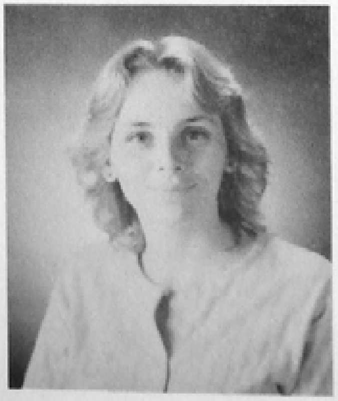
Patti McCarty



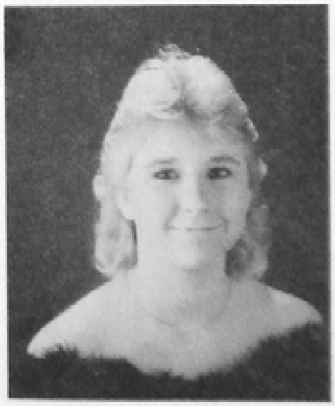
Brian McClure



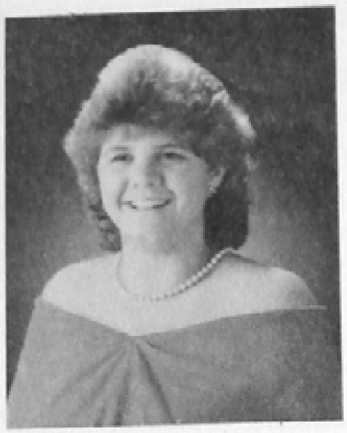
Tony McKenney



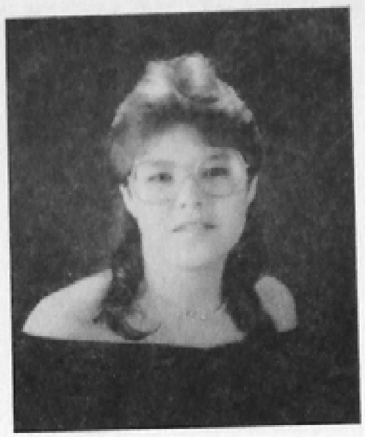
Melissa McLaughlin



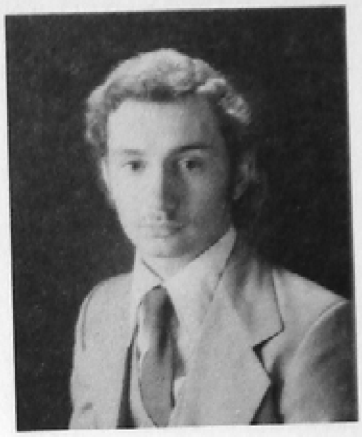
Barbara Miller



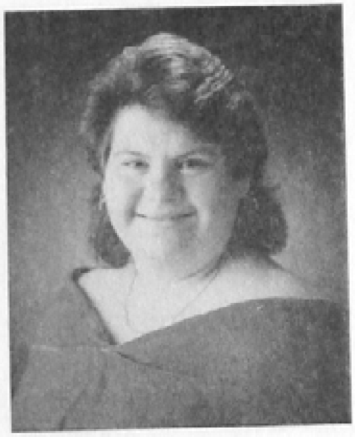
April Moore



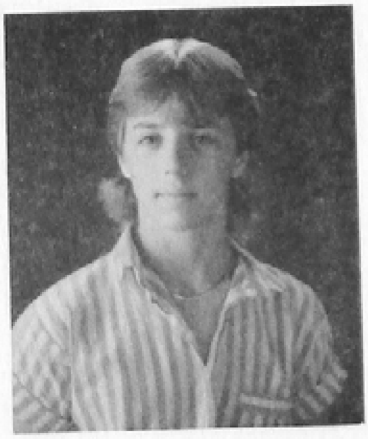
Sandy Moore



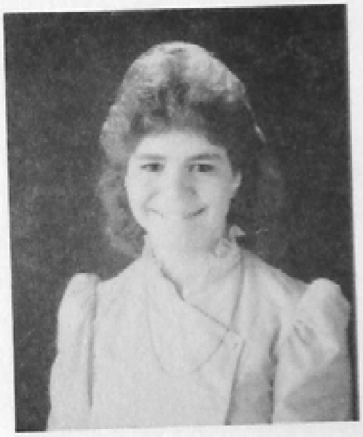
James Morgan



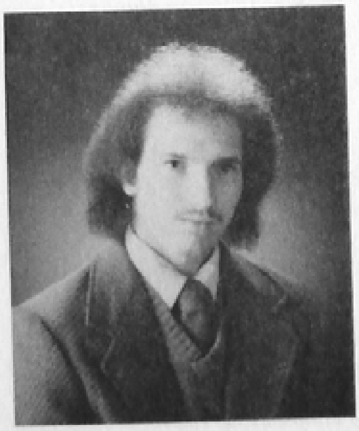
Jerdina Mullenax



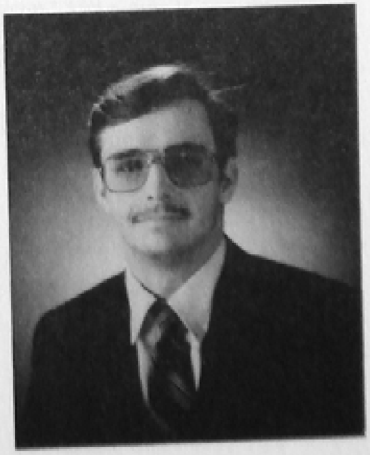
Willie Mullenax



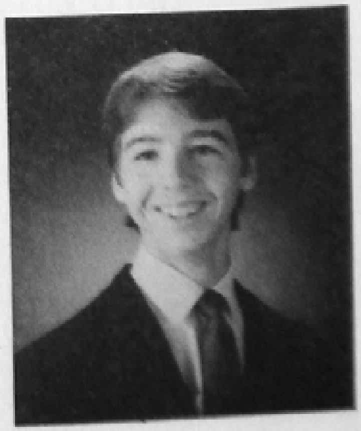
Tonya Parker



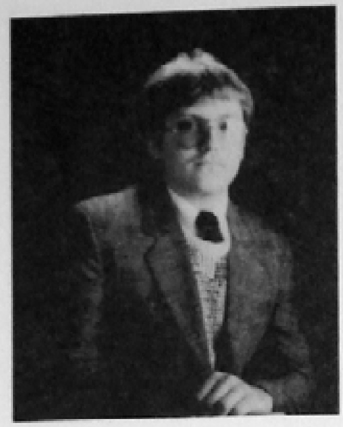
Scott Pennington



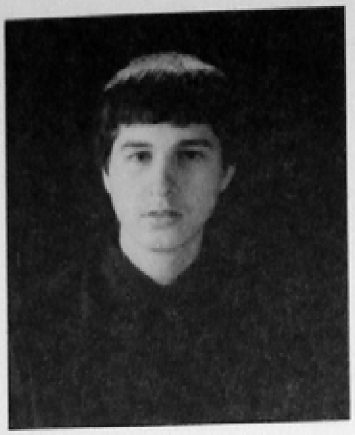
Eric Perkins



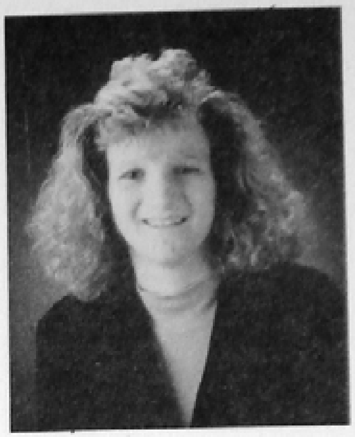
Keith Pingley



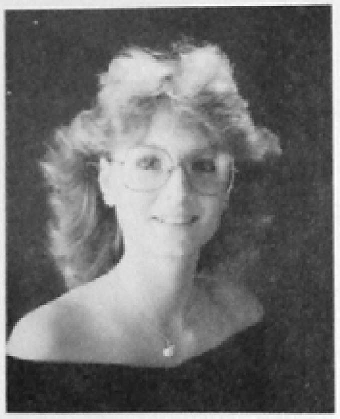
Steve Poage



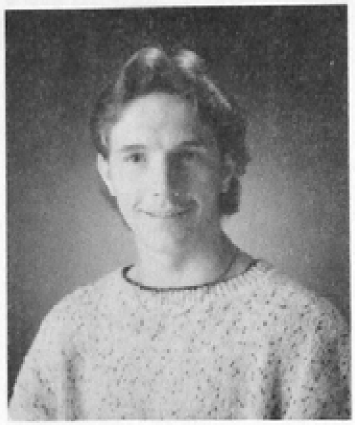
Ryan Pritt



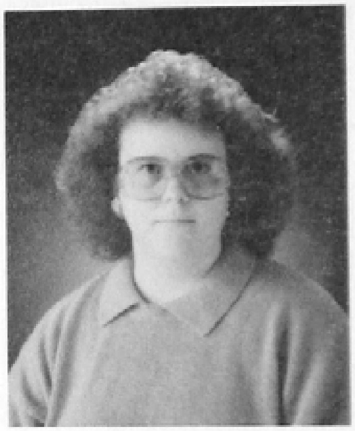
Debra Radcilff



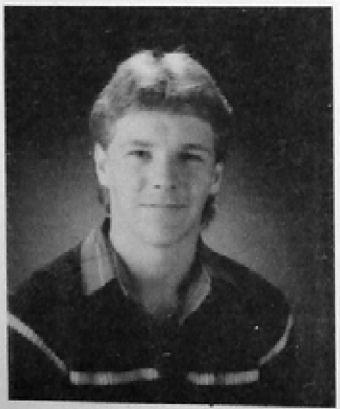
Allison Rexrode



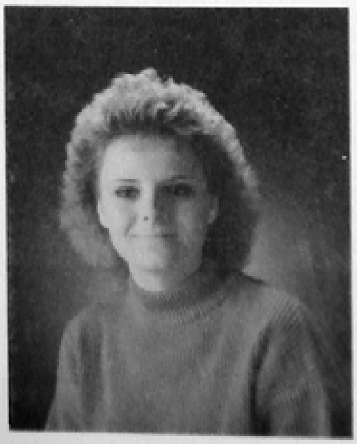
Mark Reynolds



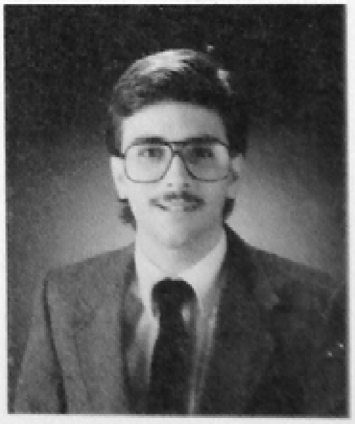
Beth Roach



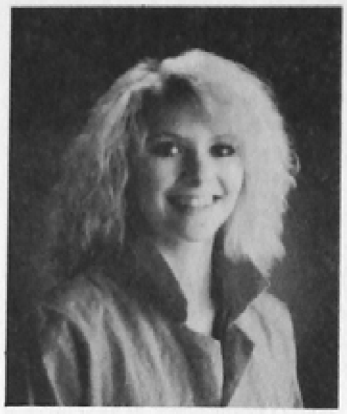
Jerry Rose



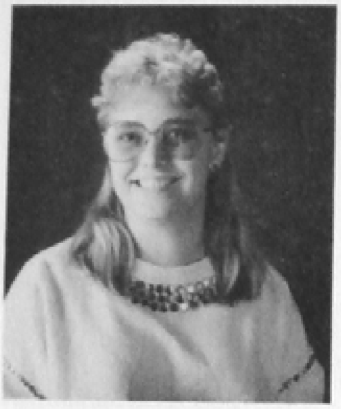
Angie Rudd



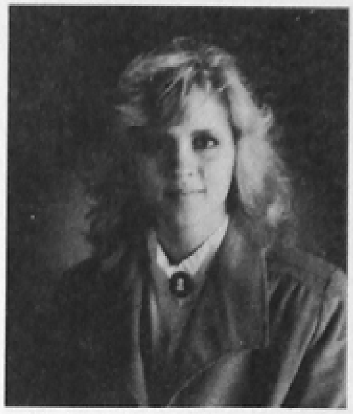
Scott Sanders



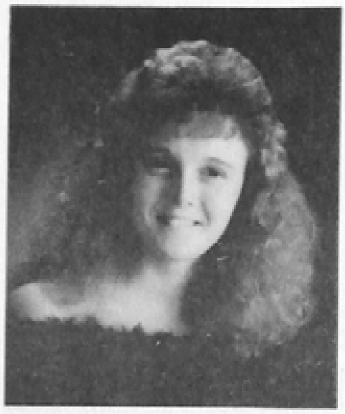
Karen Seabolt



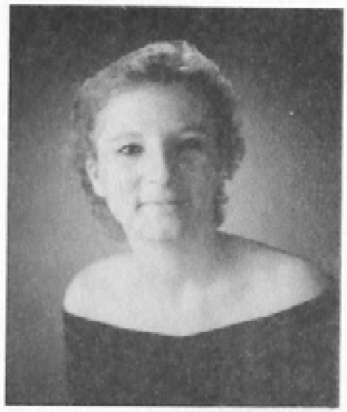
Mattie Scott



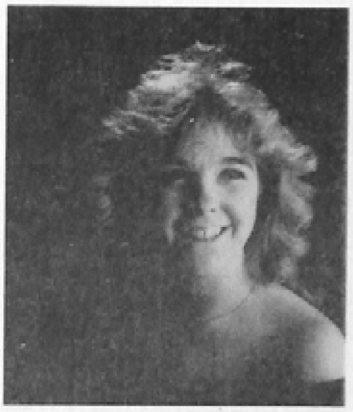
Philippa Shafer



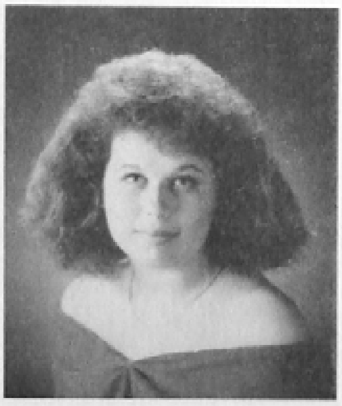
Lisa Sharp



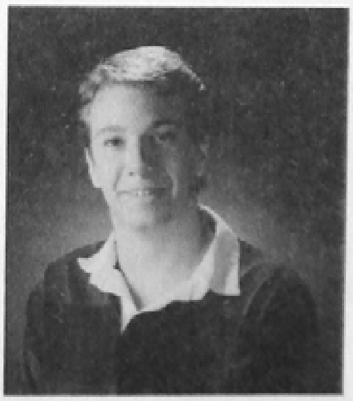
Shawne Shearer



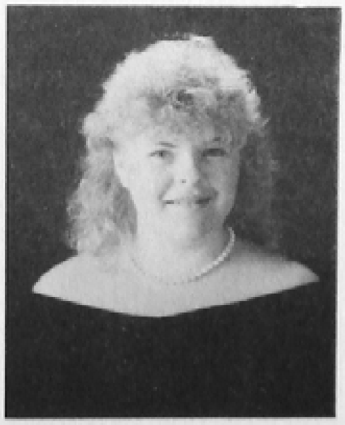
Chantell Sheets



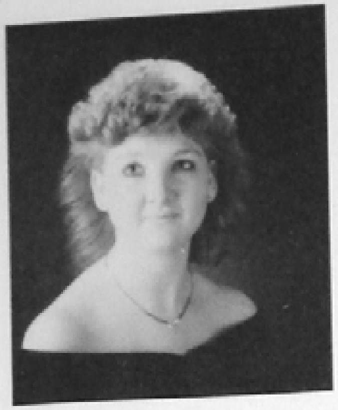
Dianna Sheppard



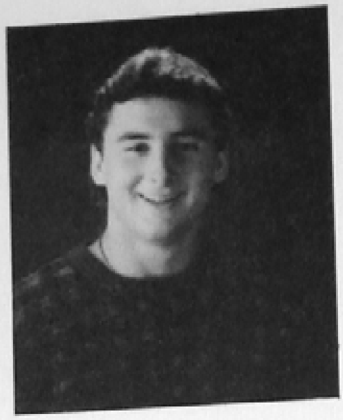
Bob Sumner



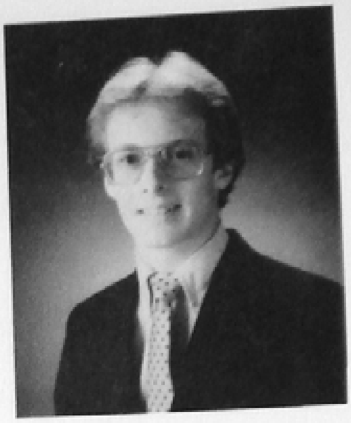
Kim Stull



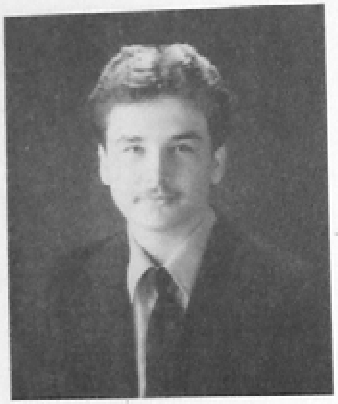
Lori Terry



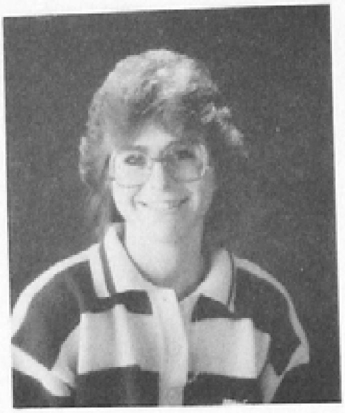
Kevin Thompson



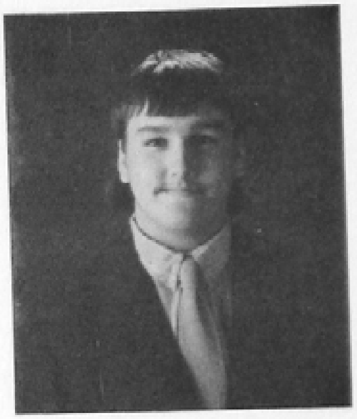
Jay Tibbs



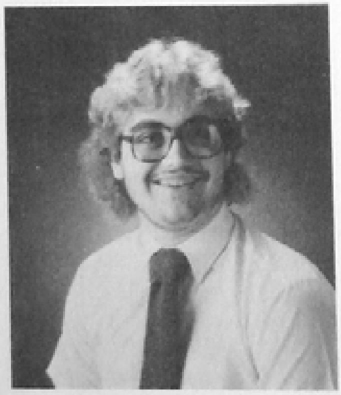
Mike Tracy



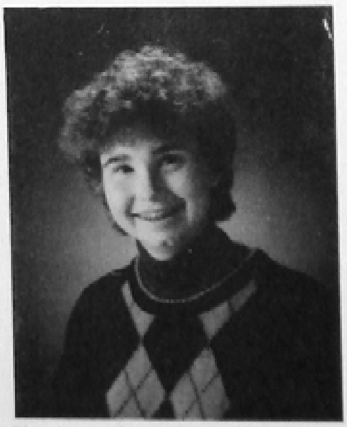
Cathy Trainer



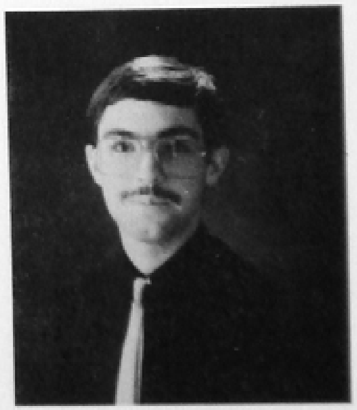
K.G. Underwood



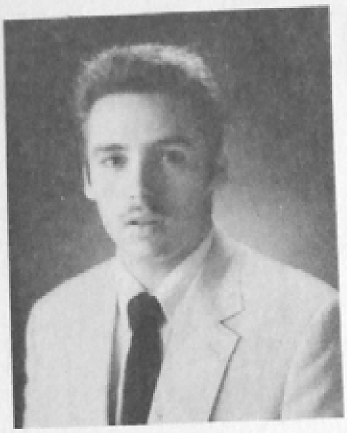
Bruce Vandevander



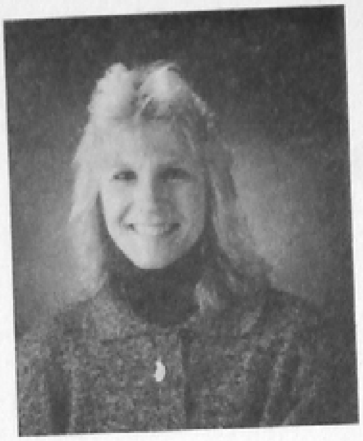
Beverly VanReenan



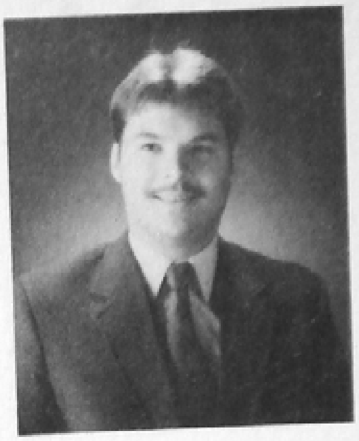
Dennis VanReenen



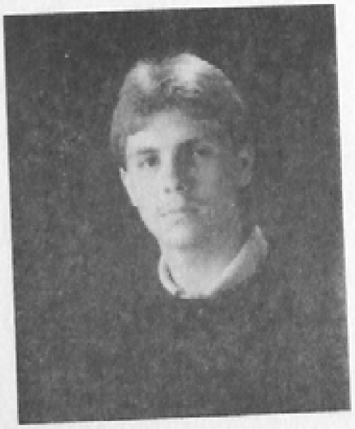
David Watson



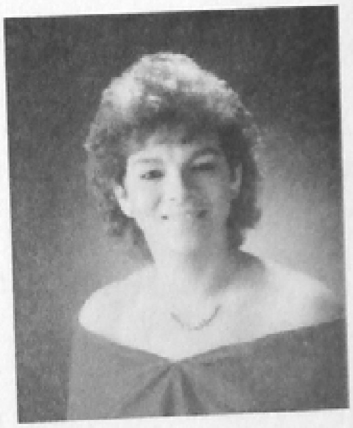
Robin Weatherholt



Doug White



Jason Workman

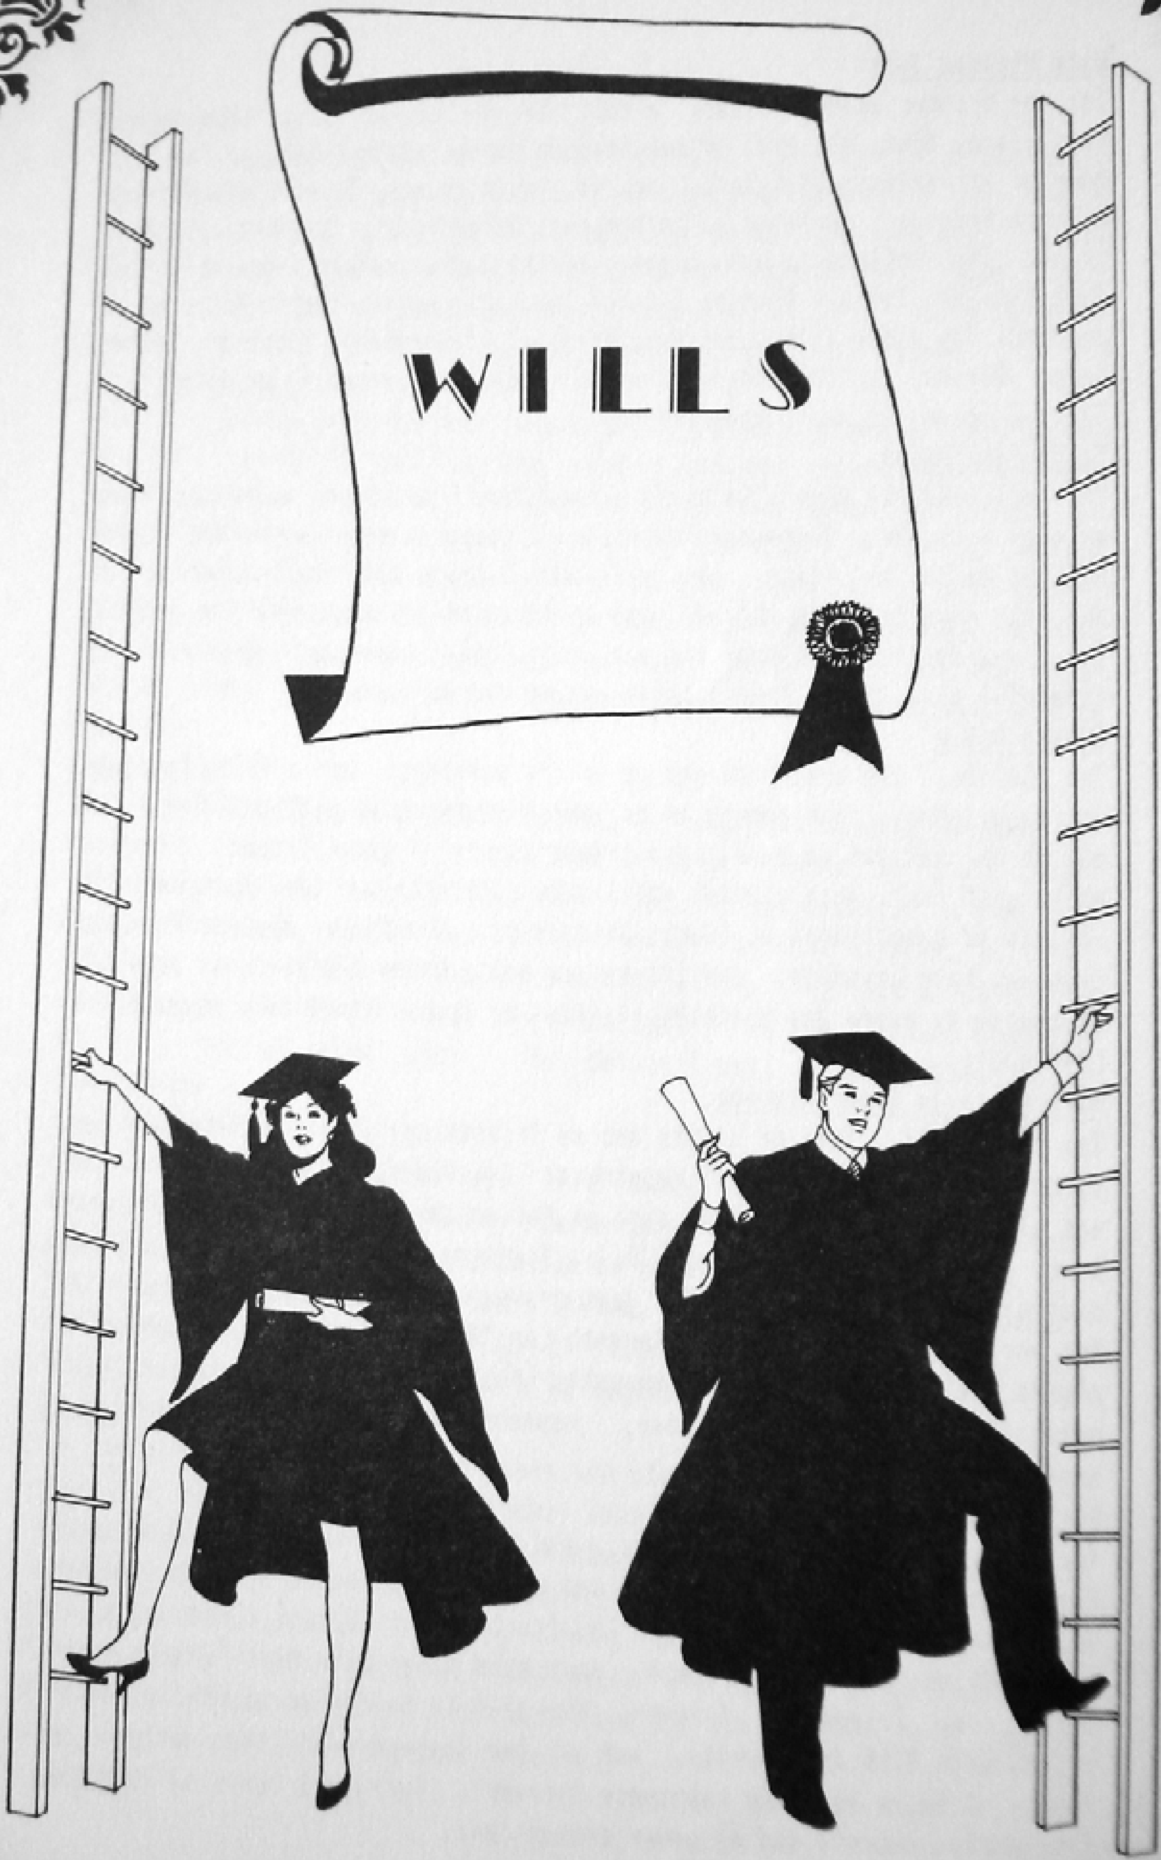


Stacey Workman

Senior Class Officers

Bob Sumner	President
Randy Casteel	Vice President
Mary Kinder	Secretary
Jay Tibbs	Treasurer

WILLS



Gina Hickman Jack

To: My brother Steve Hickman, a full length mirror just like mine; Kevin, and, Mike, the will to get through school; Cathy, Melvin, another game of scrupples; Bill Jack, muzzle, quiet games, TV with headphones; Allison Rexrode, marriage on horseback; Jason Friel, another bridge to cross; Josh McClure, a baby sister; Martha Jack, another daughter-in-law just like me; Tiffany Sheets, lots of luv, big words; Robin McClure, a peaceful day alone with Dale; Cody Fransico, "smooches", "toosie", better days; Denton, another Jeep; the most important person in my life Erick Jack, I leave you me, I love you!

Scott Pennington

To: all teachers whom I've given a hard time I leave you my respect and my good will; Mr. Vance and McDaniel, I leave to you a wonderful future without me in the office; all my friends I leave with fond memories of all the good times we shared; and to those of you who think I'm sweet I leave you my love (you know who you are); last but not least to my wonderful girl that I love I leave you my heart.

Teresa Doyle

To: Selina, the desire to get up in the mornings, and a fella to make you happy; Mary, the energy to do your Accounting at night; Patti, the pay up on that bet we made, and life's supply of gum; Dreama, one room shack with "us", more dimples and laughs at lunch; the two "coaches", the ability to shoot hoops at lunch; My parents, thanks for the patience and love you have given me, and I love you both; Randy "Turkey", my love and of course my money and whatever it takes to keep us together, remember, I LOVE YOU!!

Mary Marcella Greer Rexrode

To: Kim Stull, lots of laughs and my friendship; Chantell Sheets, a big church wedding, and lots of happiness; Ava Greer, stay out of trouble, and all my clothes; Mom, take care of Ken and my stuffed animals; Dad, my tears and many more oil changes Ha!; Jeanette and Jonathan Currence, my dishes; Brian Vandevender for your grave, all the beautiful flowers in the world; my loving Husband Kenneth Lee "George", the warm, peaceful nights we've shared, the thoughts that I'm with you always, and especially my everlasting love, remember me forever, I love you sweetheart.

Mary Galford

To: Lori, one more GDPP, Santa, and a chance to kill Frankie's dog; Carol and Melissa, another FRIEND and more gossip sessions; Patti another Win, Lose, or Draw game, Theta Chi front porch; Debbie, Peanut butter oreo cookies; Debbie and Robin, more hard times with Miss Blankenship; Cathy, my friendship forever, the ability to relive all those summer nights with Mike and Sweetie, and all the happiness in the world; my family, I leave love and happiness forever!; Terry, I leave my lifetime friendship, support and my never ending love.

Tim Dean

To: Selina, one tweetybird and if I'm lucky a chance to relive our past; Randy Casteel, one page in the Charleston Gazette just about you and a date with at least one girl; Bill Coughlin, to be just like me; Frankie Cassell, a girl your own age; Brian Helmick, another date with J.W.; Ricky Loudermilk, one case; Jody Morgan, most of my love, and I'll never forget the relationship that we had; teachers, more hard times.

Rosella Beverage

To: Mr. Vance, Mike Murphy, many trips to Wallops Island and bug spray; Mr. "B", plenty of pencils; Doc, singing lessons; Kevin, glasses to see women as what they are; Frankie, a lab with no questions; Lisa, an exceptional future with Kenneth and another NEW YEAR'S EVE NIGHT; Deb, a foot or two and all the happiness life can give; Beth, plenty baby books; Barbara, parties and a fun-filled life with that someone special; Marsha, all the money everyone assumes you have; Dad, I LOVE YOU and great thanks; John, our memories, my forever lasting love and my outstanding Chevette.

John Broyles

To: Dave, something that can be useful, a Ford; Jay, back-up singing job for Hank; Bob, a gross of O'sage Peaches gift wrapped in Gala paper towels; Brian, golf lessons; Shawn and Jimmy, a subscription to American Cooner; Miss Dean, weekly home visits from her favorite student, if I can find him; Mrs. Stewart, wealth, Hawiian Holiday, and then a visit from the IRS; Clerical Block Class, two blank pages from the National Enquirer to fill out as they wish; The Senior Class, a long awaited goal, graduation.

Mike Buzzard

To: Jason Workman, Ron Kelley, Big Daddy Chris Alikakos, Pickle Thompson, Kenney Hill, Danny Carpenter, Shane Alikakos, and Coach Wilburn, all the muscle you can build on yourselves; to Mike Wolfe, all the violence you can take; to Mrs. Irvine, a lifetime supply of Southern States pencils; To Zig, a large jar of flipping coins; to Pam Friel, all my love, hoping that we will always be together.

Danny Carpenter

To: Monte Friel, all the good times and close calls we have had and hopefully we will live through them; John Hannah, a million dollars so you won't have to work so hard; to Monte, John, Ryan, Chris, Dave, and Willie, all the good times in Electricity; To Zig, another class like ours and a little hair; To Chris, Kevin, and Ron, a lot of luck in the future at what ever, especially football; and finally to my honey Lori Matheny, I leave my heart filled with love for you and only you, hoping that one day we will be together forever.

Frankie Cassell
To: Jennifer, a pair of Chippewa boots and a couple more trips to the Monterey Fair with Carlton; Gina, a silver Cougar and all the happiness in the world; Kevin, the luck to find an uncle like me; Mr. Beverage, to find somebody who will take him to the Nationals a couple more times; Mary, the ability to learn how to ski; Lori, to find somebody to aggrevate you as much as Kevin and I have; to Jerry, my strong ankles; Pickle, all the happiness in the world for you and your father; Henry, learn to be a carpenter.

Randy Casteel
To: Danny, my football skills; Brian, another Cass Connection; Kevin, Booty, rehabilitation; Bill, muscle; Jason W., one homerun; Scott S., someone besides Angie; Jimmy, basketball shoes; Missy D., the "Ms. Olympia" title; Tim G., a set of Oxen; Jennifer C., someone to talk to; Mr. B., my car radio; Missi P., a great basketball season, my friendship; Tim D., a car that can beat the "wonder pony"; Nancy, our lasting friendship; Michelle, fun at Fairmont; Jeanette B., Jesse; Dreama, Tim; Beth, my math skills; Cindy, another great friendship; Class of '89, wisdom to make the right choices in life!

Chantell Sheets
To: Allison, a big piece of fudge and my everlasting friendship; Lori, a car of your own and a new pair of legs; Marcella, a place in my heart and I still want you as my maid of honor; Mary, more nights out, maybe on our own; Marsha, another Chippendale calendar; Leslie, please stay out of trouble; last but not least to Kevin, my "smuffin", my undying love and hopefully a life together in a log house with a fireplace and a big pond, and I want the phone but you can always use it.

Philippa Shafer
To: April, I leave any guy you want and a happy life; Missy Poage, a good man; Mr. Rexrode, another aide just like me; Billy Doyle, a life's supply of pencils; Missy Duncan, the Chippendales; Marsha Grimes, a very good life for years to come; Philissa, good luck in high school; P.J., a life's supply of candy; Philena, 2 kids with normal noses; Jerry and Ryan, some different jokes; Mrs. Beverage, a 2 Karat ring; Lisa Sharp, a good life with Earl; Sherry, and Angie, a life full of parties; and to Shawn Ervine, all my friendship and love forever.

Brian McClure
To: Cherie Mace, may you stay the same as you are now, a special person; Missy Duncan, a great future; Mrs. McGee, give Stacy more hard times about his Alegebra homework; Coach Sheets, don't worry, be happy; Mr. Vance, a better group of students; Mr. Rexrode, for being there for us; Mr. Zeigler, more tools for everyone; the football team, may you have a winning season; Mrs. Burns, a better homeroom.

Missy Duncan

To: April, man of your dreams, friendship forever; Dreama, life of happiness; Kevin, a weightroom; Philippa, soft food; Frankie, memories of April; Mrs. Rose, another aide as athletic as me; Randy, a new car; Missi, another computer class; Garland, pack of gum; Mr. Hall and Coach Haught, another person to pick on; Wilburn, my muscles; J.P. and John, a wonderful life and my room; Mom and Dad, my love, respect, and happiness, thanks for everything; Senior Class, best of luck; Cheri and Carrie, twin men; Mrs. Rhea, many more yearbooks; Randy Sharp, great memories and my love and friendship forever.

David Coit

To: PCHS family, fun, peace, love, and happiness; Brian, president of U.S.; Selina, Miss America; Jesse and Jeanette, a wonderful future together; Teresa, a joyful life with Randy as a husband; Jay, anything; Bill Coughlin, A NBA career; Lisa Foe, that special someone; Jody Morgan, money and love; Tammy and Lori, someone fun like me; The Troopers, fame and fortune; Class of '89 good luck in everything you do; All my teachers, a better administration; Dance Club, success after I'm gone; Doc, a healthy retirement; Cheerleaders, more members; Mr. McDaniel, someone special like me, Thanks I Will Miss You!!

Jason Workman

To: Randy, a closer view in electronics class; Bill, a chance to play for the Celtics; Scott, a low grade once in awhile; Mike, weight strength and an ever lasting friendship; Ryan, tail lights; Jerry, a pair of pants; Jay, a real woman; Dave, power; Brain, cheap clothes; Doug, acting lessons; Beth, new friends; Missy, a date with a real man; Pam, Howdy; Traci, tanning pills.

Steve Poage

To: April Moore, I leave her John fruitloop Lovelace to do with him what ever she wants; Daddy Bland, I leave the famous TV show Hee Haw; To my sister I leave my bedroom and my truck keys so she can go to McDonald's parking lot when she feels the need to; Jeff, and Martin, I leave my front seat on the bus; to Zig I leave my skiing ability; to Rollo, I leave a parking space at Beckwith's big sawmill; to Angelena, I leave all my love forever and always; to the rest of you I leave nothing.

April Moore

To: Missy, the Chippendales and my friendship forever; Teresa, happy times with John and a birthday party; Missi, any man of your choice; Philippa, happiness always and life free of Vickie; Kevin, a nitght with Missy; Randy, a baseball scholarship; Missy H., a red car; Kristi, #44; Kelley, a lot of laughs; girls B-B, a trip to states; Tabbi, an iron fist; Tina, a wedding; Jennifer, a new man and sister; Robert, a woman; Tim, Teresa; Buddy, a party; Philissa, alot of happiness; Stacey, a party; Rexrode, Shupe, McGee, another April; Senior class, success to everyone, best of luck in everything.

Pam Grogg

To: April, a date with Tommy and college basketball; Teresa, new disk; Richard, Randy's spot; Apryl, spot on Sesame Street: Missi and Teresa, my seat on the basketball bus; The basketball team, life supply of rubber bands; Howdy, date with Missy Duncan; Mrs. McGee, more time; Shupe, more like me and April; Mrs. Keller, someone to take my place; Mr. Rexrode, someone else to match make for; Traci, lots of kids; Mark, alarm clock; Jason, stilts; Jay, headphones; Sheri and April, Good Luck at Fairmont; Dr. Leary. a calendar to count the days to retirement; Class of 1989, Good Luck!

Monte Friel

To: Danny Carpenter, I will the trip to Russia to run with the best and play in the NFL; Traci Alderman, a guy with a motorcycle; Ryan Pritt, a 175 amp fuse; Chris Alikakos, to be an all-star football player in the NFL; Zig some more hair and another class like us; Terry Sheets, first place in the grand national 4-wheeler race; Kevin Halterman, to learn something in electronics; Lori Matheny, a new car to beat Danny and to kick Crissy Armstrong's butt; John Hannah, a car that drives itself.

Bill Coughlin

To: Jesse, set of tires for your rust bucket, suntan oil for college, and a happy marriage with Jeanette; Scott, a fishing instructor and good luck at WVU; Helmick, a chance to break in your back seat, and my shooting form; Jennifer, a long life with H.A.; Brian B. someone to share your charm and intelligence with; Bob, an attention span of more than five minutes and more one liners; Mary, Gina, Dianna, Selina, a good relationship with your loved ones; my baby brother, my friendship forever, my room and my scoring average; Doyle, real mans haircut SAY JAY!

Donna Conley

To: Jerdina, more good times with the "nasty" better person, more friends like me; Allison, more gossip sessions; Mrs. Sharpes, more classes like sixth; Shawne, all the chip bags you can handle, a lifetime with Ricky; Traci, all the quarters in the world a payphone and the "hunk" you like; Jennifer, more "wild" weekends at Lewisburg, more "horses"; Marsha, Earl Thomas Conley, more classes like sixth; Dad and Mom, all the luck in the world without me; Tina, good luck with Mark; "Shirley", more good times like the one's we had last year; Lyndon, all my love; Mike, my neck.

Jamie Collins

To: Tim, a date with a real woman; John, another year with Mr. Alderman; Donald, my place in the office; Kevin, a new set of crutches; Danny, break the open 400 record; Chris Baxter, black underwear; Amy, a skinny boyfriend; John Burks, the front seat on the forestry bus; Mr. Burns, Mr. Alderman, another brat like me; Jerry, Frankie, a lift chair ride; Kevin, Keith, another car; Jimmy, JW; last but the most important Lisa, I will you my love and affection because nobody else deserves it more than you do, I love you very much.

Chris Alikakos

To: Ron Kelly, my forever friendship and the will to achieve his dreams; KG Underwood, my great discus throwing ability and my good looks; David Watson, great life in the Marines and with Tammy his bride; Danny Carpenter, my great speed and agility and a great football career; Kevin Halterman, another guy like me to drive his nerves up the wall; the coaches, a successful 1989 football season; Monte, Mike, John, my ability to get caught in the act; Missy Wingler, my love.

Billy Doyle

To: Bill Coughlin, a lifetime supply of golf balls, and a new NBA ball team; Jason Armstrong, a perfect shot; Buddy Kellison, a piece of cake; Zig, a lifetime supply of Lysol, and all the wire nuts I threw at the class; Soulman, a new complexion and a duffel bag; Tim Coughlin, Magic J., a magic touch in basketball; Jamie Gibson, a boxing lesson from the Doc.; Philippa, a lifetime supply of bubble gum and a new boyfriend; Jimmy Grimes, a set of drums.

Selina Clifton

To: Doc, the ability to understand me; Coach Sheets, all my troubles and the face you made smile; Stewart, five zeros and a good life; Jen, all the good times and last football game; Patti, another perfect friend; Curt, flat tires and fond memories; Scott, confusion and admiration; Brian, presidency of the U.S. 2007; Dana, my coat; Steph, my seat at the Chickinn; J.L., my car; Mom and Dad, the ability to survive me; Tim, "you cutie"; Mike, thanks for all the wonderful memories and for all you gave me; that secret someone "Oh well maybe next time!" Goodbye.

Jeanette Barton

To: Randy C., another backbone and my math problems; Brian B., happiness success and a big thanks for understanding me; Bill, happiness and your basketball dreams; Jody, another journalism camp and more wild nights down under; Dreama, all of your dreams; Doug, a pinch on the nose, scarey movies and a friendship to last forever; Dianna, a special friendship always, a teddy bear and a cross country adventure; Jesse, a pilot's license, respect, special dreams, friendship, and all of my love forever.

Daniel Bennett

To: Denton Circosta, I leave my driving ability; Timmy Dean, may he use my combat talents in the best of taste; to my brothers, Kevin and Richard, I leave my lousy teachers and books; solely to Kevin, I leave my stinking locker which probably smells better than he does; to Mr. Thompson, I leave my welding ability, maybe he'll come as far as I have; to Steve Poage, I will my banged-up Ford Exp; finally, to Charlene, I leave my millions in First National and "my" 1988 Ford Four-Wheel Drive.

Mattie Scott

To: Bonnie, my bus seat, good luck and happiness; Teresa, Sheila, Ruthie, happy dining without me; Misty, courage and kittens; art class, a great time; Mrs. Leary, fifteen great aides; Dr. Leary, fifteen computer whizzes; Mr. Taylor, fifteen great carpenters; my man, my love; oh, I almost forgot to everyone who ever gave me anything, thank you, and maybe you can touch someone else's life like you have touched my life, thank you again.

Beth Roach

To: Mr. Vance, Pete's Pool Room; Mr. Stewart, a maid; Doc, an affair; Mrs. Stewart, 100 FBLA members; Mrs. McGee, her own team; Mrs. Irvine, grandchildren; Scott, everlasting friendship; Bill, phychology notes; Mary, flowers; Nancy, "pokes"; Dreama, embarrassment; Gina, kittens; Patti, a cat on prom night; Doug, a clean nose; Randy, 1/10 of a point; Traci, smoke alarms; Selina, pillows; Michelle, loudness; Marsha, tips; Rosella, Pascal partners; Jesse, a Dodge; Bob, a new job; Jason, knowledge; Dianna, dirty dishes; Lisa, a glass of water; Jamie Gragg, survival for another year; Mom and Dad, never ending thanks; Donald, all my love.

Steven Scott Sanders

To: All the teachers I've had in school my thanks, you've made a difference in my life; Mr. Stewart, and Doc, the absolute monarchy; Selina, roses; Jen, the weekend; Bill, and Jesse, fishing trips; Helmick, a car; Bob, someone to talk to; Brian Beverage, a physics major; Beth, my friendship; Jeanette, Jesse; Lisa Sharp, valedictorian, you beat me fair and square; Teresa, a pool party; Susan Gainer, my brother; Gina and Mary, what could have been; Rosella, John; Dianna, a man; Karen, your dreams; Jay, loose women; Nancy, a dead cat; to anyone I've left out, I'm really really sorry!

Ryan Pritt

To: La Mont I leave some one else to pull on his scraggly beard, also good luck in your electrical career, Curt, I leave my Vietnam Jungle with my "ski naked" hat pin; I leave to my bus #4, more singers and empty pop bottles than they can handle; Zig, I leave my stories and the ability to tell them in West Virginia language; Rattler, someone else to grade his booth circuits; Buddy, I leave some kid to do his work for him after he graduates; and to Jason Workman, I leave driving lessons.

Allison Rexrode

To: Stacey, my friendship, more good times, and Hansom; Gina, a good life with Erick; Chantell, good times, a bigger piece of fudge and Fawn; Kevin, more stamina to keep up with Chantell; Jerdina, a real cute guy; Michelle, a house full of cats; Donna, longer hair, a career as a military cop; Lori, a happy future with whomever you choose first semester; gym class, my sympathy for having to put up with me; Mrs. Stewart, a million dollars; Miss Dean, another student like me; Danny, a wagon wheel; Donald, my love forever; sorry to anyone forgotten.

Sherry Kerns

To: Angie Rudd, more time to sleep, lots of clowns, and a lot of happiness and good luck with P.C.; Stacey Workman, ability to like a guy more than one week, good luck at college, and another date with N.M.; Missy McLaughin, another year of Carpentry, one more nickname and a great life with Jack; Arlene, good luck with John; Nancy, a free yearbook, and another Chemistry Class; Mike Jordan, no more school, and an unwreckable car; Lisa Lane, lots of luck, and happiness with Stacy; Beth, lots of kids; Shawne, another daughter like me; the class of 89, good luck.

Ron Kelley

To: Chris Alikakos, lifetime subscription to Muscle and Fitness and all my gratitude for our friendship; Danny Carpenter, all the happiness life has to offer; Dave McCloud, the imagination to use his talents; Coach Wilburn and Coach Haught, my thanks for being so understanding; Kevin Halterman, the unforgettable name of Elmer.

Michelle Hiner

To: Nancy, electronic speller; Mary, bus stop with a heater; Gina, more time to talk, my job; Patti, more FBLA trips like our first; Debbie, quality computer disk; Lisa, a trip to FSC; Marsha, M&M's, trips with Lisa; Allison, horse farm in Texas; Dianna, four pencils for college; Jennifer, more errands to run 1st period; Jesse, more classes like 1st, a truck; Randy, subscription to the Gazette; Bill, military career; Beth, 12 names, Princeton trips; Traci, happiness; Julie, a great senior year, my spot in NHS; McGee, another great homeroom; Mrs. Stewart, a calculator, AWP class like ours, salespersons for FBLA.

Brian Helmick

To: Jay, Beverly and me as a roommate at UK; Tim Dean, a real car and another time with Jackie; Scott Sanders, my ability to pick up women; Bob Sumner, one large Nad; John Broyles, million yo-yo's and a car to test drive forever; Bill Coughlin, a lower balcony and a date with Cindy; Randy Casteel, women, and two healthy oxen; Jesse, new truck; Mrs. Irvine, another handsome student; Doug White, a SADD party; Tim Gordon, V-8 bottle and a tissue; Shawn Nottingham, copy and more copy; Doc, a bind; Debra, high heels; Selina, quiet bus ride; Lisa, my body.

Nancy Hefner

To: Lisa, 50 dollars and a June wedding; Mary, a pooter with warts: Patti, a case of Pepsi; Michelle, a vacation and a stable career; Gina, a blow-up doll of Sting; Marsha, a roommate that cracks her gum; Randy, a box of popcorn; Jason, a calculus tutor; Bob, Bill, Scott, manners; Lori, a dirty joke for each day of the year; Dianna, a camera; Brian, his dream woman, Bertha Jean Emma Lou; Selina, Dreama, Jennifer, my friendship and respect; Mrs. McGee, a procrastinating class; my parents, patience and my love; Becky, and Kim, all of my thanks and deepest appreciation.

John Hannah

To: Danny, Monte, Kevin, Chris, Willy, Kenney, and all of my other friend a great future and friends forever; Roger, Galen my car; Monte, a new pair of skis; Danny, Lori, a cruise to the Carribean; Jamie, another year with Mr. Alderman; Willie, my electricity skills; Pickle, my Carpentry skill; Mr. Ziegler, a ski pass to Colorado; Dwayne, my job; Mike Buzzard, and Kenney Hill, a gambling casino.

Mary Kinder

To: Gina, my friendship secrets and a good skiing partner; Dreama, more gossip; Patti, people to make fun of; Nancy, gravy and chicken; Beth, happiness; Frankie, more wild weekends at the Spoke; Teresa, a candy cane in case you are lonely; Scott, Bill, Bob, all my thoughts; Michelle, wildness; Mr. Stewart, everlasting friendship and a letter every week; Mrs. Stewart, a trip to Orlando; Mrs. McGee, another great home room; Doc Leary, the fountain of youth; my parents, love; John, all my love and the favor you wanted; The Class of '89, good luck in the future.

Kevin Halterman

To: Chris, Ron, and Danny, best of luck in your football careers; Mark, Jamie, Frankie, more great times between us; Randy, time with Missi; April, a new knee; Missy D., the man of her dreams, Randy Sharp and a trip to the state track meet; Rosella, a boyfriend that doesn't argue and a better body to go along; Lori M., I leave you Danny and everything that he can provide for you; Mommy McGee, another great student like me.

Jesse Groseclose

To: Bill Coughlin, a motorcycle that runs and a few less women; Scott, a razor and more that drive like a Ferrari; Jen, regular oil changes; Beverage, more time to think; Helmick, a house in Cass; Sis Dianna, a big teddy bear; Jay, Bob, Michelle, Cindi, Beth, Marsha, Randy, my infinite friendship; good luck to all the '89 class; and of course, to Jeanette, my everlasting love.

Jerdina Mullenax

To: Donna all the luck in the world; Marsha, a wonderful life with J.E.; Allison, another teacher like Mrs. Wilder; Laura, the office and the computer; Debbie, a happy and full life with David; Chris Baxter, lots of good times with "that guy"; Kim and Mary, more gossip sessions; Mr. Bland, 5 more daughters just like the ones you have; Mr. Cain, someone else to do those special jobs for you; Mrs. Beverage, more fun trips with the FFA; Mrs. Stewart, another class like 5th period; Donnelle, the bus; Missy, all the guys you can handle; Jesse, my everlasting friendship.

Keith Pingley

To: Mr. Taylor, a new dump truck and a trip to Kansas City; Mrs. Taylor, the million dollar lottery; Mrs. Shank, all the aluminum cans; Mr. Rexrode, a International truck; Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, a set of book shelves and their car back; Kevin Thompson, a dog house and a car built like a tank; Frankie, a jeep like mine and the guns in the world; Jamie Collins, a Billy Club; Marcella Rexrode, endless happiness.

Patti McCarty

To: Mary, My friendship and my ability to get along with everyone, I hope your life is happy and your dreams come true; Selina, another "perfect" friend and all the happiness you deserve; Nancy, a car, great roommates and my friendship forever; Beth, the nerve to tell the truth, more interesting evenings and the best of luck with everything; Dreama, an empty locker, and imaginary friend, I hope your life is bright and happy; Dawn and Dana, make the best of it!; Mr. Stewart, another lunch crew that couldn't even compare to us; Everyone else, luck, love and happiness forever.

Barbara Miller

To: My parents all the love, money and happiness in the world; Adam Cory Grimes, a peaceful world, good times and a great life; Lora, Pam, Tammy, Tabby, Lori, Lisa, and Mary, great times and lots of men; Sandy, good times with Trampas; Rosella, life with John; Angie, life with P.C.; Mike Jordan, finish school and live at least until 25; the rest of my family and friends, good luck in the future; and to that very special guy who colors my life, all my love forever and always, and I wish him all the happiness in the world forever!

Melissa McLaughlin

To: Angie Rudd, a happy life with P.C. Dean and my friendship forever; Sherry Kerns, shorter legs, and my friendship forever; Mrs. Shupe, another student just like me; Sam Taylor, two more students just like me and Angie; Mike Wolfe, the ability to learn how to change a lightbulb; Arlene Dean, the man of your dreams; my future niece Susan Goldizen, a happy life with Edgar Friel; my mom and dad, all my love forever; and last but not least the most important man in the world to me, Jack Cosner, all the love and support I can give you.

Tonya Parker

To: Kim, a new pair of sprints, and a dictionary; Leslie, happiness with Dennis, and many more trips through the halls; Tina, lots of laughter, and clowning around; Naomi, the ability to make it through school, and graduate; Robin, another English class and happiness with Richie; Angie, a new song, and bus stop; All the other seniors, good luck and memories to never forget; Mrs. Beverage, another aide like me, and lots of luck; last but not least my family, lots of love, and happiness, and thanks for standing by me through school; Lee, love and happiness forever and always.

Karen Seabolt

To: Regina Mullenax, love and happiness for all your life; Bob Sumner, a great joke for every day and an apology for waking you up; Brian, a candle burning brightly in my window; the rest of my friends, success and happiness in what ever you want to accomplish.

Debbie Radcliff

To: Lisa, a wonderful life as Lisa Irvine; Rosella, all the happiness with John; Bob, all the smiles you'll ever need and roller skates; Jay, a blow up doll; Mr. Stewart, a more willing aide, organization, and thanks for everything; Marsha, men; Patti, elegant dresses; Regina, fancy cars; Scott, women; Brian Helmick, my vote; Brian Beverage, answer to all your questions; Bill, a spot on any pro basketball team; Chantell, memories and happiness; Teresa, happiness with Randy; Jenifer, mosquito repellent; Beth, a wonderful marriage; Mary, a desirable career; Beverly, a husband and career; and to everyone, eternal happiness and success.

Lisa Sharp

To: Debra, long lasting friendship and dog mace to rid unwanted pests; Rosella, happiness with John and a pair of mens red, silk briefs; Nancy, a trip to Disneyland and a checkbook; Michelle, a trip to Marshall; Marsha, Mike and Randy Travis; Debbie, many trips to Lewisburg; Brian B., quality time; Beverly, a husband; Beth, wine goblets; Chantell, memories; Scott, successful career; Jennifer, a mosquito-free bed; Mr. Hall, a janitor; Mr. Rexrode, a wedding invitation; Mrs. Irvine, a vacation and a future daughter-in-law; Mom, happiness and love; last but not least, Kenneth, a wonderful life, me, and my love always!

Sandy Moore

To: Tampas, all my love forever and ever, I love you; Barbara, a chance to be with the one she loves forever; Robin, that special someone and to be friends forever; Angie, P. C. forever and always and padding for knees; Missie, a chance to relive that Saturday night in Lewisburg with J.F., C.A., T.K. and T.M.; Tereasa, her own getaway car; Jason, more long journeys away from home; Tammy, more late nights on the railroad tracks looking for parties; Mrs. Shupe, for all the encouragement and hard work of getting me through this last year, thanks; Mitchell, boxing gloves.

Dianna Sheppard

To: Jeanette, everlasting friendship, my excuses, a car and map, full closet, happiness with Jesse; Bill, gum, food, candy, money; Nancy, a picture; Randall, my laugh; Scott, 500 pennies, and a date; Jesse, coon dogs, old trailor; Gina, my secrets, another trip to Elkins; Michelle, more talks; Patty, leather jackets; Brain Beverage, logical answers; Doug, strength; Karen, a sunny day; Dreama, a snack; Brian Helmick, humiliation and embarrassment, and something better; Debbie, Spanish dictionary; Beth, a dishwasher; Marsha, no more homework.

Jay Tibbs

To: Bill a chance to play for the Celtics; John, a managerial position at Fas Check, another Hank Concert; Shawn, a righteous babe; P.J., more Jim Bakker sweaters; Jason and Randy, the strength to make it through PASCAL; Rob and Brad, my Luke Skywalker tape; Bob, Big Jim Slade; Crissy, my watch with bad timing; Lori, A's in conduct; Becky, my ability to get along with others; McCloud, Accounting II; Scott and Doug, another trek to Wallops Island; Dreama, my famous stories; Pam, Howdy; Missy, bowling lessons; Brian, a faster route to Cass; Mrs. Irvine, another year with Rob.

Cathy Trainer

To: Bev, six more kids and all the food you can eat; Gina, and Erick, your own house with your own maid; Amy, your very own boyfriend and contacts; Mom and Dad, thanks for everything; Dad, I will you another ticket; Mom, I will you a lifetime supply of inhalers and a trip to N.Y. by yourself; Kim, another wild time at Busch Gardens; Robin and Lisa, more good times with Tabby!; Melvin, thanks for being there for me when I needed you! I give you the rest of my life, I love you!!; The Class of 1989 "Good Luck".

Kimberly Stull

To: Candy, another trip to McDonald's, steady boyfriend, miserable life without me, and all the laughter possible; Marcella, my bushy hair, and the Chevy truck of your dreams; Vivian, the guy of your choice; Mary and Terry, a trip to the Bahamas; Jerdina, someone to get you out of third period; Tonya Lou, another typing class, and more flashlights; Shelia, all of the wrestling possible; Willie, a car that won't break down every mile; David and Dana, my shoes; Mike, fire meetings, and more runs through Durbin; Stacy and Jamie, more four wheelin; Cathy Trainer, another trip to Busch Gardens.

Dennis VanReenen

To: Mrs. Howell, another student to pest her like me; Mrs. Flegel, another aide as good as me; Chris, a long relationship with Terri; Teresa, Missie, Debby, Lisa, and Tammi, a gum factory and my headset which one of you always has; David, another wreck; Joe Smith, a referee suit and whistle, though he hasn't needed it much this year; Stacy Coleman, the kiss and date which she never got; Mrs. VanReenen, I leave all her other nephews and nieces to have in home room.

David Watson

To: Chris, good luck in college football and more good times with the women; Missy, all of the wild weekends; Tammy, my empty money clip and all of my love forever.

Paul H. Barrett II

To: The Senior Class, I leave the best of luck in the future.

Becky Long

To: I, Becky Long, do hereby will all my friendship and good luck to Shelia Queen; Janet Mallow, all my books and pens; Daniel, my place in the lunch room and lots of fun; to my parents and brother, all my love.

Brian Lee Beverage

To: my family and friends, I leave an infinite peace of a ray from the star of my love and the knowledge of what you mean to me; to Karen, I leave the star and the knowledge of what you have borne in me.

Robin Weatherholt

To: Mom and Dad, my thanks; Mom, the will to drive your own tractor trailer and all the luck with Cheryl; Dad, the time to lay back and rest instead of working yourself to death; Cheryl, good years in school; Lisa, a lifetime with Earl; Cathy, a lifetime with Melvin; Billy, my diploma; Tonya, days in Nutrition class; Grandma and Grandpa, thanks for everything; Derek and family, the best life ever; Richie, my love and a lifetime full of happiness, I love you and thanks for showing me a way to a real life.

Kevin Thompson

To: Frankie, the Flute blower and to Nelson the Fudge packer, I leave thee my last two girlfriends Abbott and Castillo; Henry, I leave you all of my great talents in Carpentry and even more great moves on "you know who"; Tim Dean, for all those times you thought that you were better than me, I leave you all my strength; Allison, even more stamina to keep up with Donald; Lori, an even bigger horse with a better saddle; last but not least, to Chantell "Baby", I leave you my endless love and friendship and hopefully a life together forever.

Stacey Workman

To: Philip and Dawn, everlasting happiness; Lori, Tammi, Tina, Alisha, friendship and an all-nighter; Sherry, Angie, a steady man and all happiness life may bring; Leslie, another night at Pegs; Selina, one good man; Crystal, Alisha, and Tammi, many more pickers, my ability to sing, a car that will run; Allison, friendship forever and my ability to ride; Arlene, happiness; April, Moats; Alisha, Teresa, Missy, Tammi, and Crystal, a seat to yourself; Tammi, life without my closet, all my love, friendship forever; Mom and Dad all my love; Mrs. Howell, another student like me!; everyone else, friendship and happiness.

Bruce Vandevander

To: The Class of '89 I will the happiest, peaceful and best life that they can have; Gary Tracy, the best motorcycle around, besides mine; Mike Tracy, the biggest deer he can get; Mr. Ziegler all the skiing that he can get, and also a class as good as the one we had; my brother, all the fun times I had with running around with him and running his Dodge truck; my sister, I have fun joking around with; Mom and Dad, who is there all the time; underclassmen, make the best of it.

Mike Tracy

To: friends, roommates, teachers and girlfriends, its been great but thank the gods I'm out; wishing each a great career and I hope to see each of you again some day; with forever laughter and endless loving heart, I wish the best for everyone. So long!

Doug White

To: Jimmy, a date with M.D., 20/20 vision; Mrs. Irvine, students like me, you will never have to grade another paper; Doc, millions of pages to type in; Jeanette Barton, a lifetime of happiness, a pinch on the nose, and enough money to pay Adventureland bill; George, a seat at the Blue Oyster; Jennifer Canada, my ability to always be right, another year in high school; Jeanette Canada, common sense, camping trips; Beth, a college education; Gina, a thumb; Jay, a redneck girl; Dianna, the Precalculus answers; Mrs. Burns, more cheaters like Jennifer and me.

James Grimes

To: Doug, a day in Milwaukee and more summer band practices; Jay Tibbs, the stinger splash; Bill C., a redneck; Tim Dean, falling in; John B., and Sean N., get a real YO YO; Bill D., a Carolina Gamecock shirt and a bottle of steroids; Jason Lane, my talents and more; Brian, cells; Jennifer and Jeanette C., better cousins; Greg and Missie, another in the Library and a cup of coffee; and to Mr. Bob Sheets, "Get some sneaks".

Dreama Anderson

To: Jody, more great summers with me, and the best of luck at PCHS; Patti, a new pooter for the one that was crushed; Mary, the will to say no at lunch; Gina, to overcome redneck days!!; Nancy, a pint of gravy to drink; Jennifer, many more great times like Nicholas; Selina, a mirror and brush to last a life time; Dana, someone to pick on next year and the ability to carry on; Tim, I leave you my love forever; Mom and Dad, to be able to carry on after I'm gone, I love you both.

Traci Alderman

To: Jennifer, my Burger King hat, many "famous" weekends, cement shoes; Donna, my chicken McNuggets more nights in Lewisburg; Jason, a motor for Millie, more weekends, Tammy; Dawn, Phillip, a house with 10 kids, everlasting love; Tommy, a car stereo, a dog leash, another friend like me where ever he goes; Beth, triplets, plunger; Randy, better opinions and athletic ability; Monte'O', a noose; Michelle, fowardness; Doc, my coat, a singing voice; Buddy, a hug, more Hillsboro Dances; Mrs. Stewart, another student like me to help you stay young by telling exciting stories during your planning period; Brad, night to remember.

Jennifer Akers

To: Selina, undying friendship and loyalty, Pepsi bottles, card games, happiness; Dreama, more funny faces; Nancy, precalculus, own joke book, my thanks; Patti, "pooter protectors", "bird run"; Jesse, oil changes and happiness; Scott, happiness and more trips; Bill, parachutes and Celtics position; Mary, National Forests; Frankie, -210 Chippawa's; Kurt, David, Brad, "redneck" clothes and dares, also another buddy like me; Randy, my friendship; Coach Sheets, someone else to give a hard time to, respect, and championship basketball team; Mom and Danny, my love, gratitude and appreciation; H.A., my love, preludes, more field trips, my friendship and importantly me forever.

Rob Liptrap

To: Daddy Bland, I leave more guys like me to get work done; to the best of my band Adrian, Jeff, Charles, I leave many good times on the road; and to all the girls I've left behind endless love with whomever they wish; and that special girl Loretta, I leave her my endless love; to Mr. Ronnie Hall, I leave my final guitar pick; and to Mrs. Leary, I leave someone who will do some work in her class; and to every one else in this school, one thrashy life.

Debbie Kiner

To: David, all my love, a new roommate and many more special moments; Marsha, my friendship and love, cute men, new mottos, and J.E.; Michelle, computer talk, a certain calendar, and happiness; Laura, true love, trips, and typing for Daddy; Vern, Kansas City, new excuses, and eggs; Lisa, the fair, "trips", and a long life with Kenneth; Mary G., timed writings and peanut butter oreo cookies; Mom, Dad, and Donnie, my love and thanks; Bland, and Cain, fifteen girls to do your work; Mrs. B., more chaperoning and happy days; Class of '89, wonderful memories and lots of success.

Regina Mullenax

To: Patti, a live pooter: Dreama, the abilty to understand jokes; Nancy, some of my seriousness; Dianna, another trip to Elkins; Marsha, all my secrets; Karen, friendship to last a lifetime; Michelle, friendship and hot gossip; Frankie, one chance; Dougoli, hugs and a new thumb wrestling partner; John, an unbreakable yo yo; Scott, Bill, Bob, all of my dreams and more for less!; Mary, our first grade workbook, scissors, a wonderful life and my friendship forever; Mr. Stewart, an open ear and friendship always; Mom and Dad, all of my love; Bryan, my grades; Jon, a marriage to last a lifetime.

Shawne Shearer

To: Nathan and Naomia, all the square dancing they can handle; the nursing classmates, another year of your favorite teacher, good luck and happiness in the future; Donna and Traci, all the memories of our senior year together, luck and happiness in the future, you deserve the best; Lisa, Stacy, many years of happiness together; Tabbi, my heighth and many years of happiness together with Ricky; Robin and Terri, all the memories of the good times we have had working together at Dairy Queen and PCCC, luck with John and Brandon; Ricky Dulaney, years of happiness, you deserve the best.

Marsha Grimes

To: Debbie, my friendship and love, more shopping trips, phone calls and M&M's; Jerdina, more talks and a very happy life; Philippa, happiness; Chantell, memories; Sharpes, fudge, an aide that works without complaining; Lori, calendars; Burns, matches; David and Stephanie, triplets; Gina, a new pooter; Vance, another me; Lisa, bug spray, a big wedding; Rosella, love and great memories; Nancy, muzzle; Debra, height; Michelle, my knowledge of math; Tina, a millions dollars; Donna, happiness; Mrs. Stewart, a higher salary; Jesse, a new Jeep; Mom and Dad, patience, my love and sincere thanks; J.E., my undying love and support.

Kenney Hill

To: Dawn Rodriquez, my ability to tell a lie with a straight face; Jason Friel, my car and my love for parties; Brad Dunz, my 30-30 rifle; Kevin Shearer, the rest of my guns; Mr. Burns, another forestry class like ours; Jamie Collins, another day in the office with Mr. Alderman; Tina Grubb, all my love; Kevin Thompson, all my strength in weight lifting class; April Moore, a piece of long horn cheese; Missy, Tammie, a body just like mine; John, Kevin, K.G., Steve, and April, another day in English class.

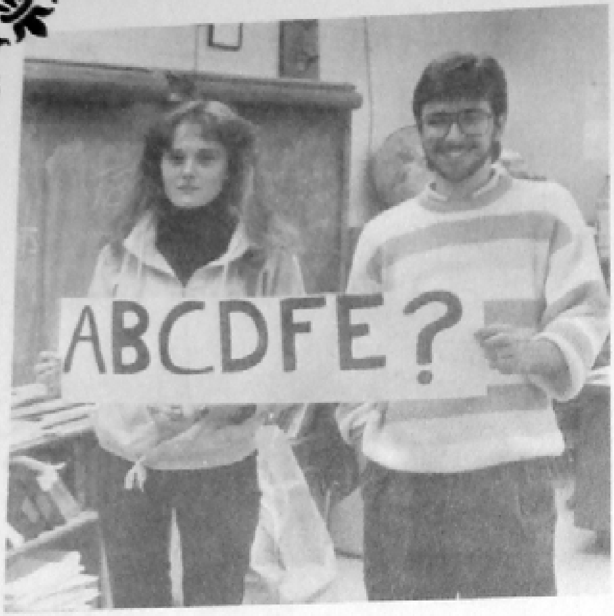
Bob Sumner

To: Jay, a good life with his sister; Mary and Gina, someone to keep you laughing; Bill, set of crutches; Karen, the very best of everything, you deserve it; Brian B., more questions, you have all the answers; John, all you can haul potted meat, and Osage peaches; George, all the cats you can stand; Scott and Brian H., a condo on Wallops Island with complete bedroom set and mosquito-proof fence.

Beverly VanReenan

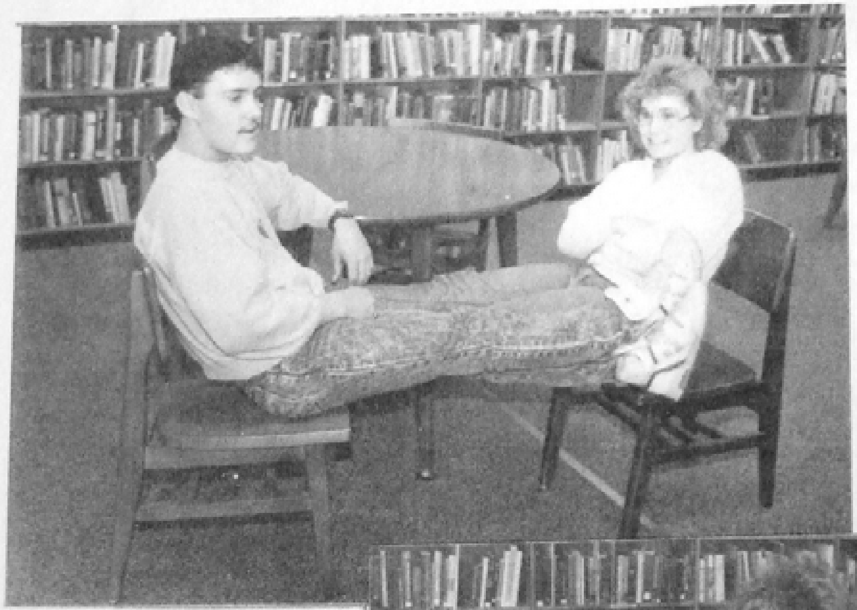
To: my Wallops Island croonies, "basically" no more bugs; Doc Leary, a graphics programmer and an "abandoned" speech student; Doug, socks; Mrs. Burns, another dishwasher like me and a new distiller; Lisa, success in college life; Helmick, a car that runs and a continual egg drop; Rosella, a map of WVU and a good physics partner; Sanders, a Freudian inkblot set and someone to administer it; Jay, a big enough lunch of pie; Brian Beverage, the proper timing for thinking; Bob Sumner, a proper name; Chantell, steadiness; Beth, many kids; Jennifer, good luck; all the rest, memories and happiness forever.

Superlatives

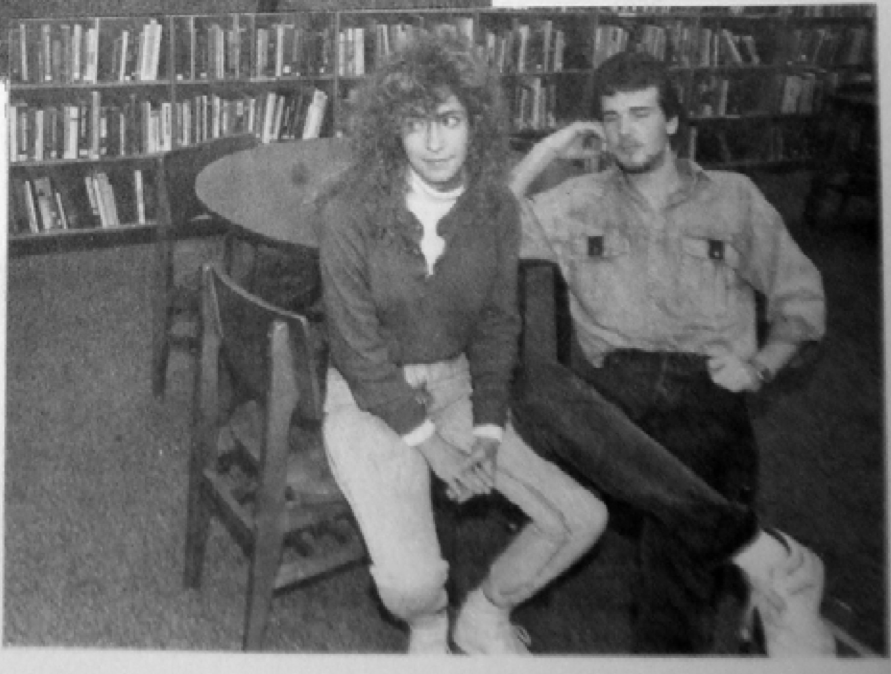


most intelligent

best personality

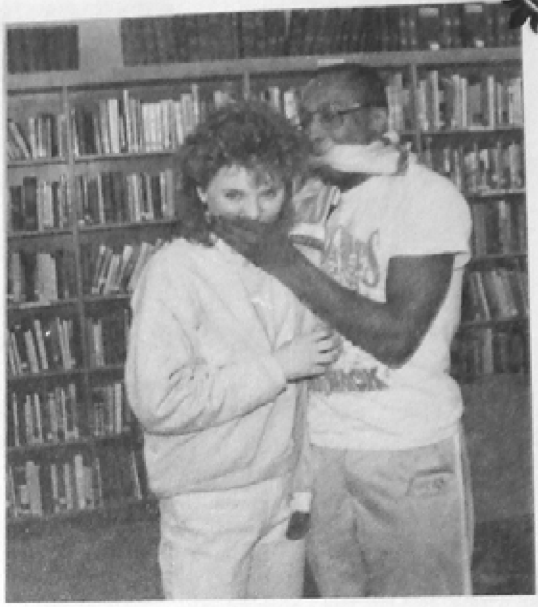


most energetic

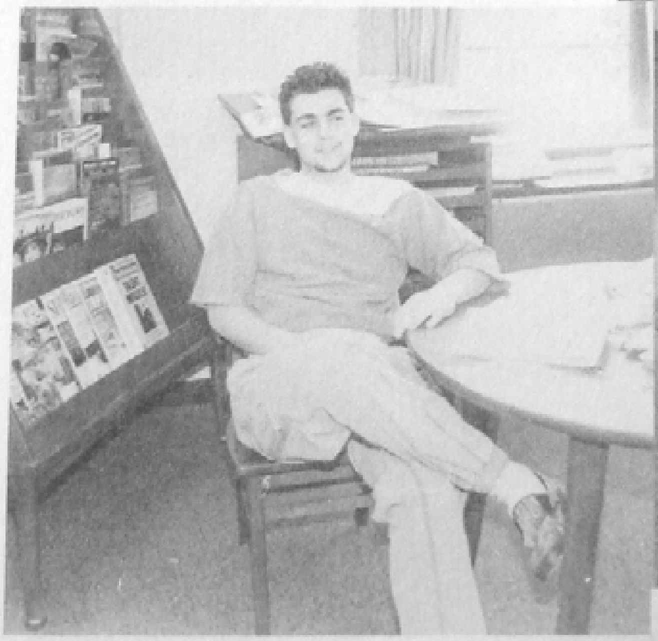


cutest couple

most likely to succeed



most talkative



best dressed

laziest

biggest apple polishers

most athletic class clowns

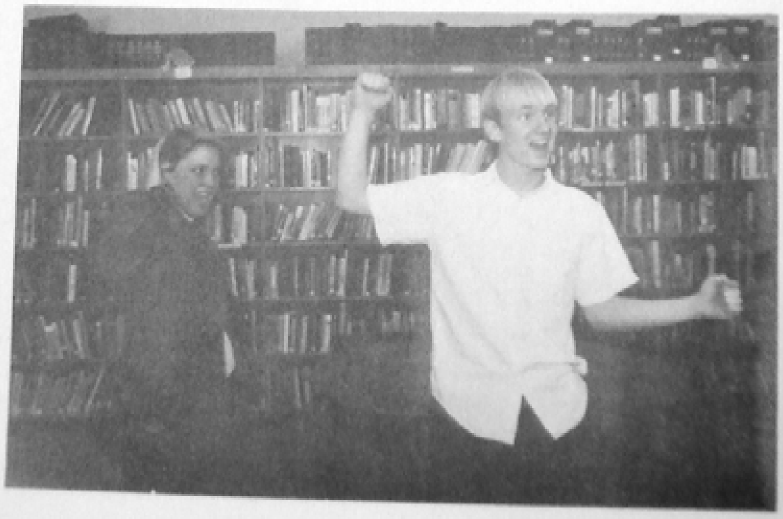
quietest



SENIORS NOW AND THEN

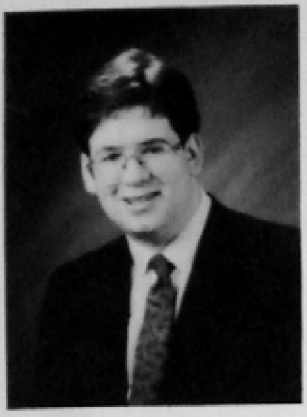
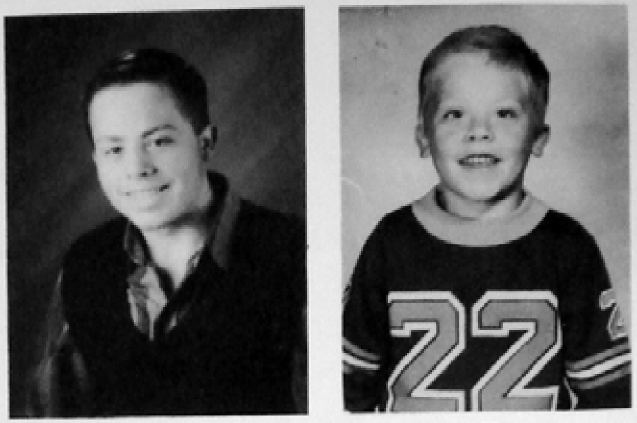
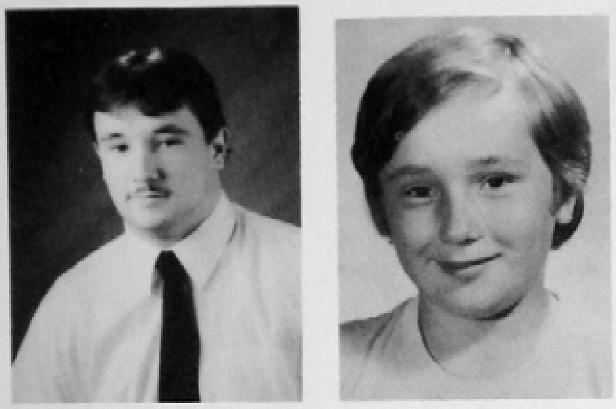


Photo
Not Available

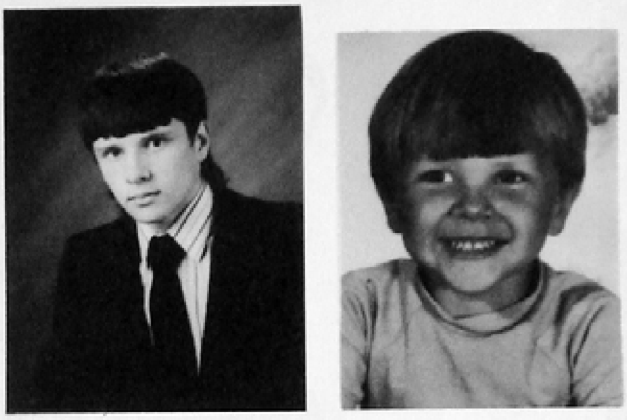
LINDELL ALDERMAN



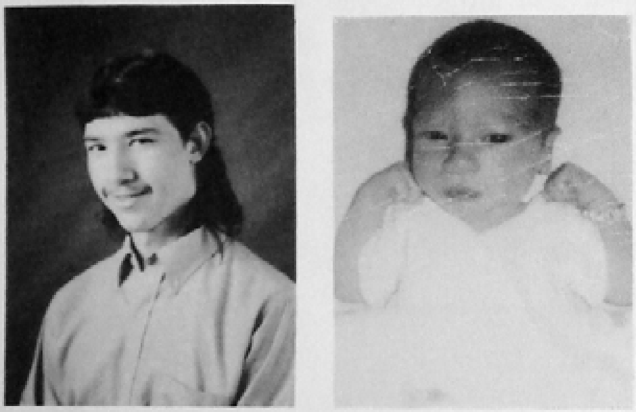
SCOTTIE ARBAUGH



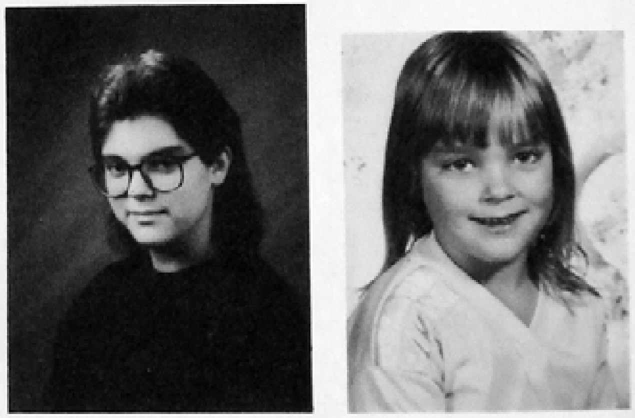
CHARLES ARBOGAST



LEWIS ARBOGAST

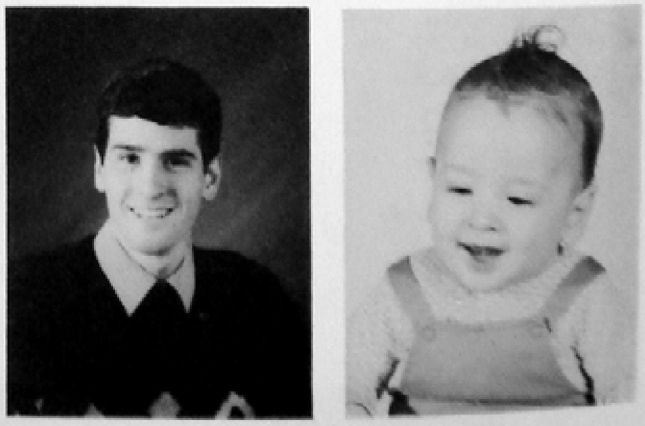


ROY ARBOGAST

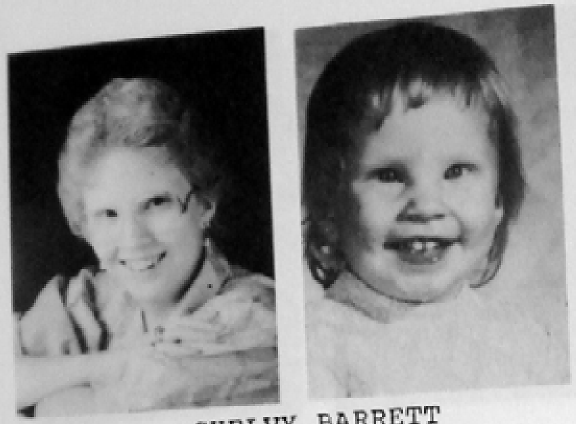


AMANDA BARB

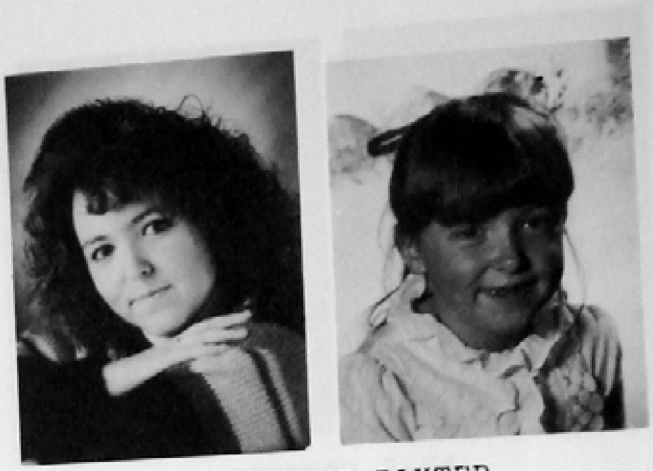
TAMMY BARB



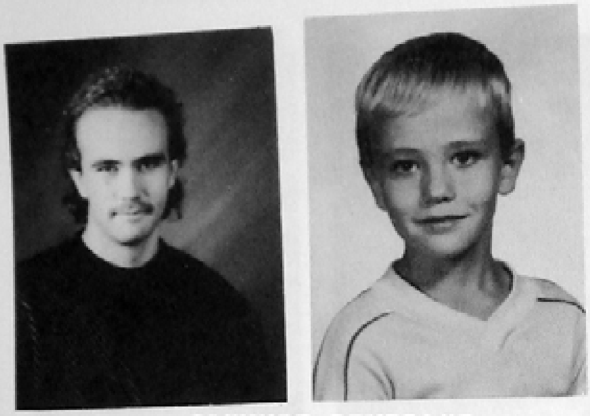
CAMERON BARKLEY



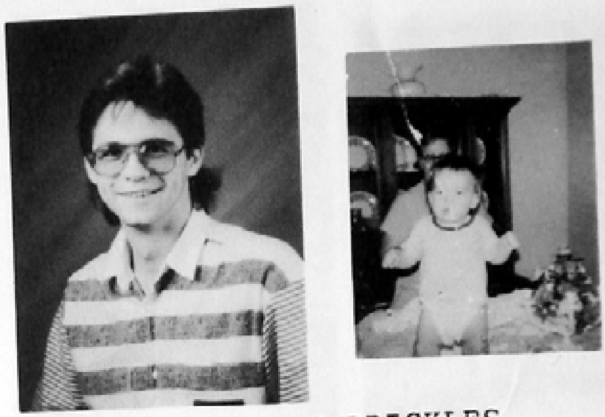
SHELVY BARRETT



CHRISTINE BAXTER

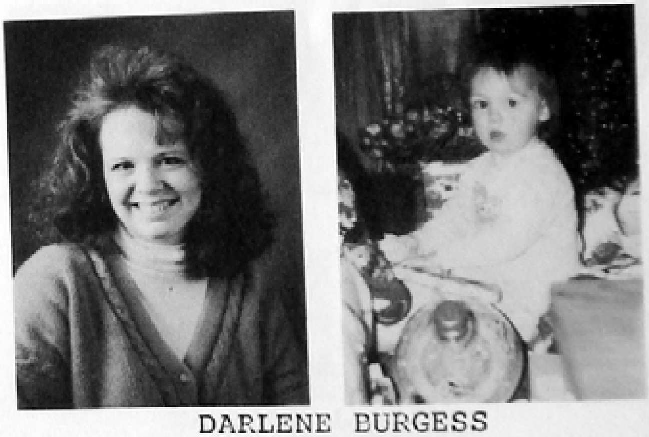


JOHNNIE BEVERAGE

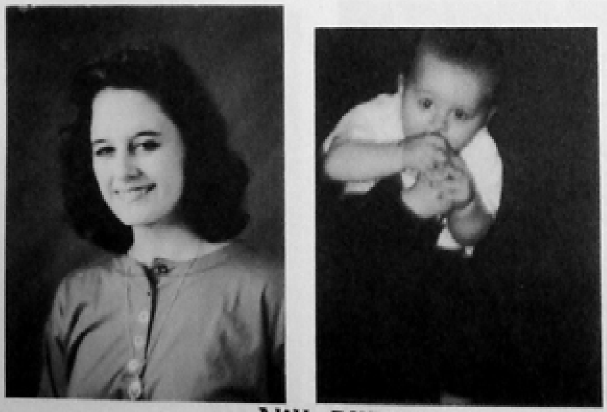


TERRY BRICKLES

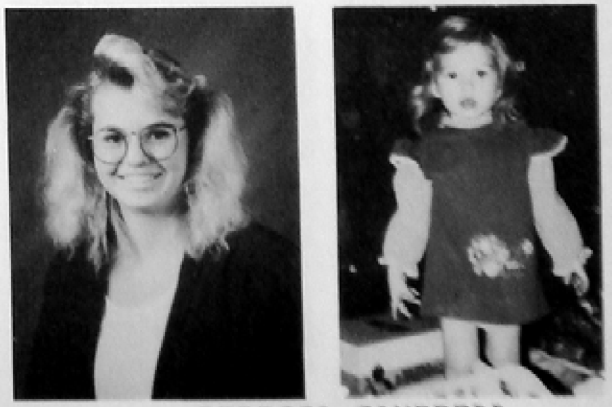
RACHEL BROYLES



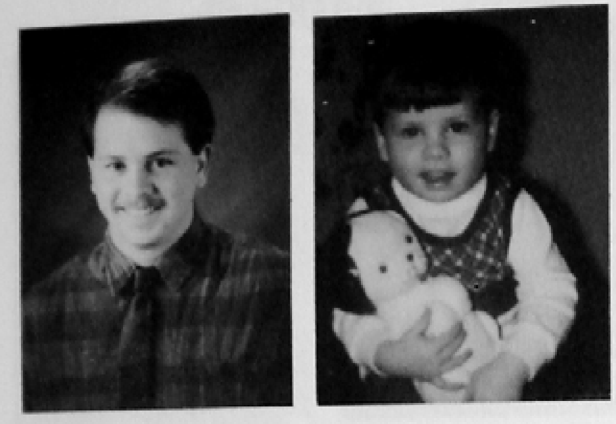
DARLENE BURGESS



AMY BURKS

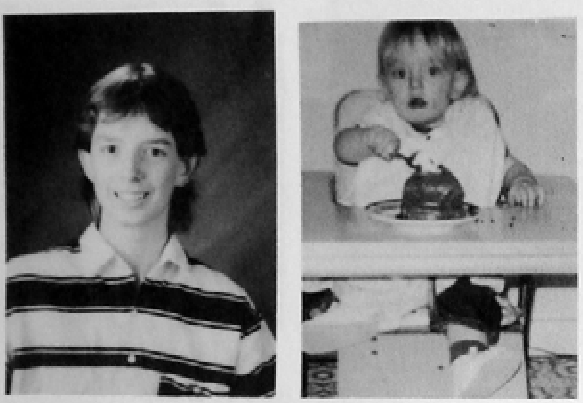


REBECCA CAMPBELL

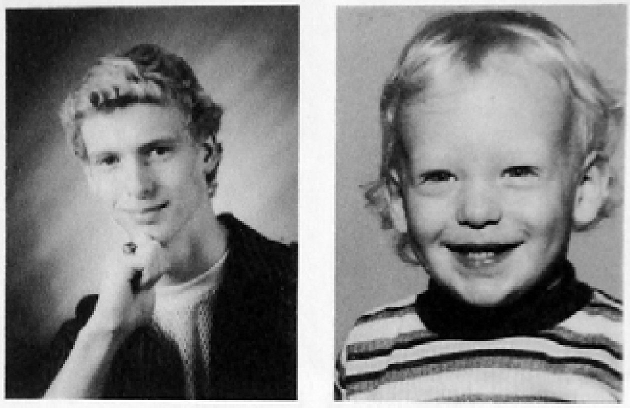


JAMES CASTEEL

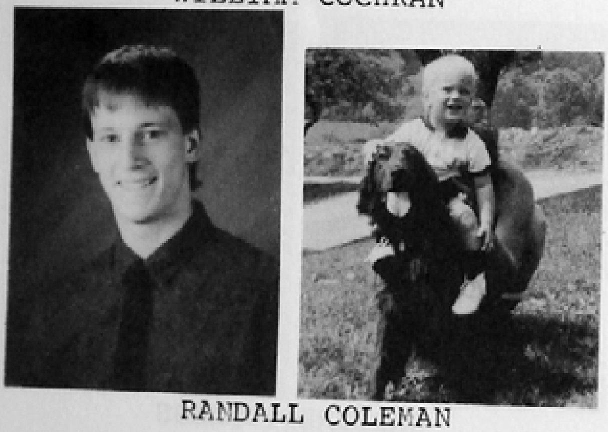
ANN DILLEY CHESTNUT



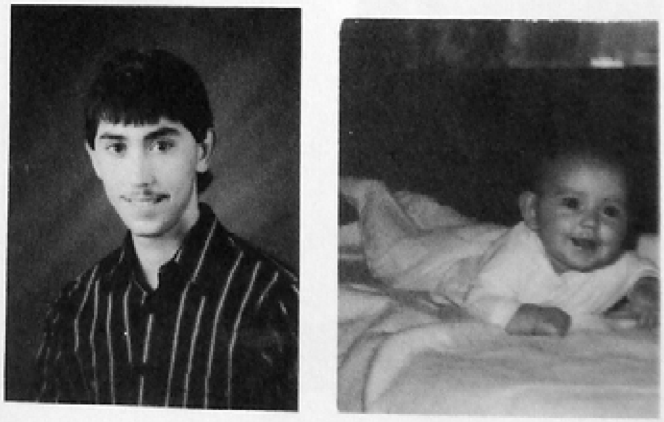
WILLIAM COCHRAN



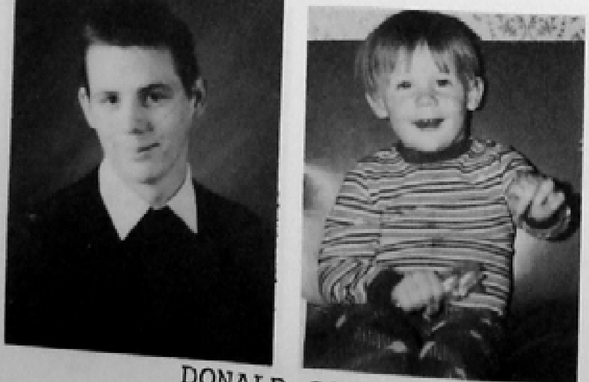
CHARLES COLE



RANDALL COLEMAN



JOHN COMBS



DONALD CONLEY

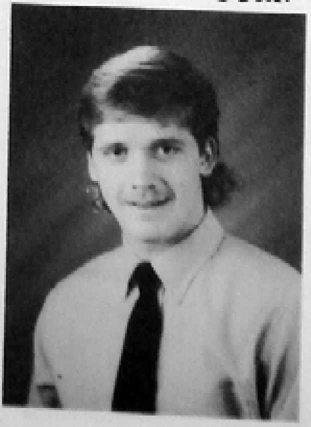
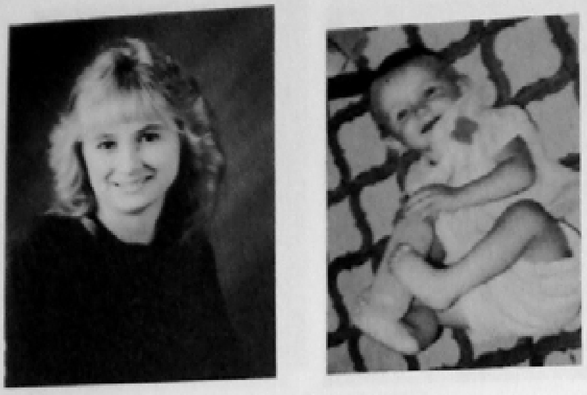


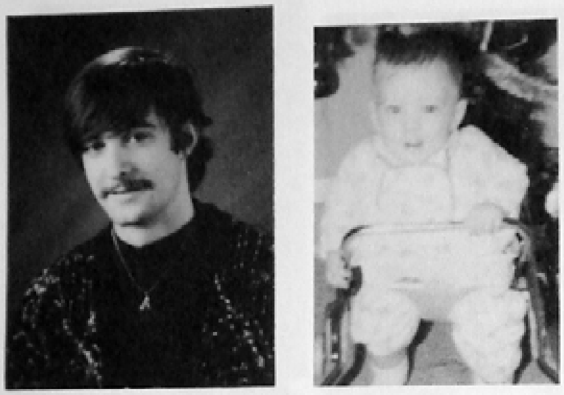
Photo
Not Available

DONALD COOK

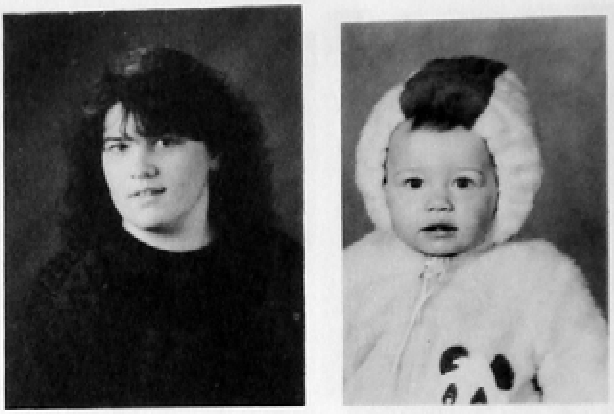


LORI COOK

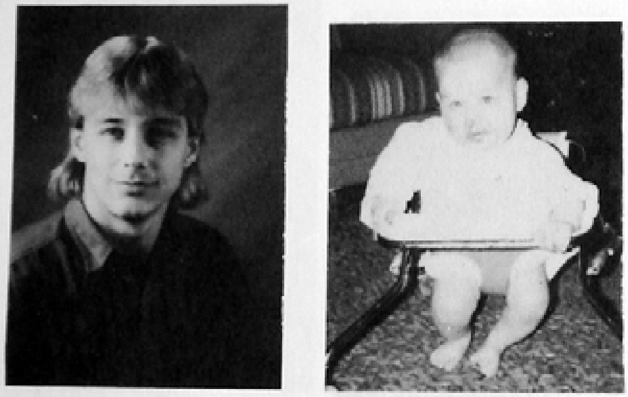
TIM COUGHLIN



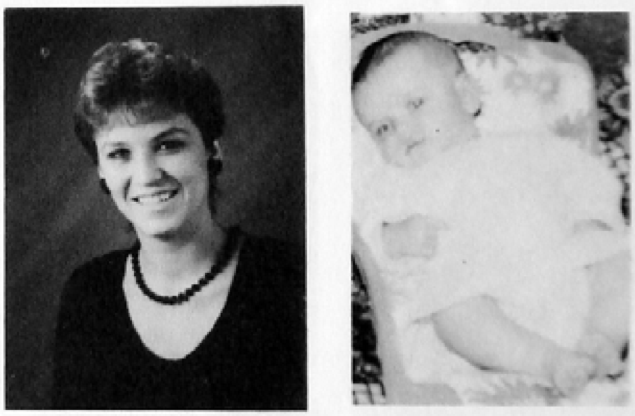
CHRISTOPHER COY



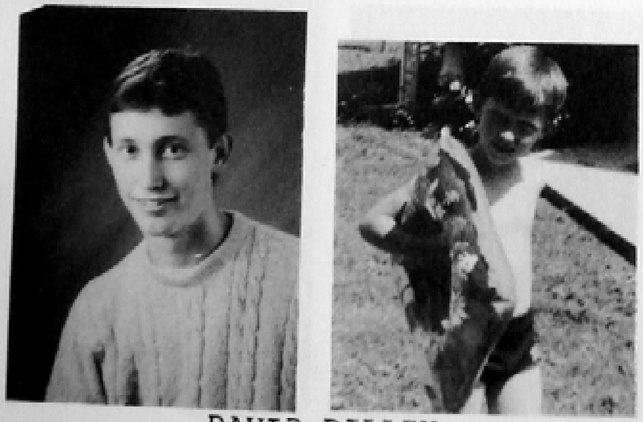
DANA CUTLIP



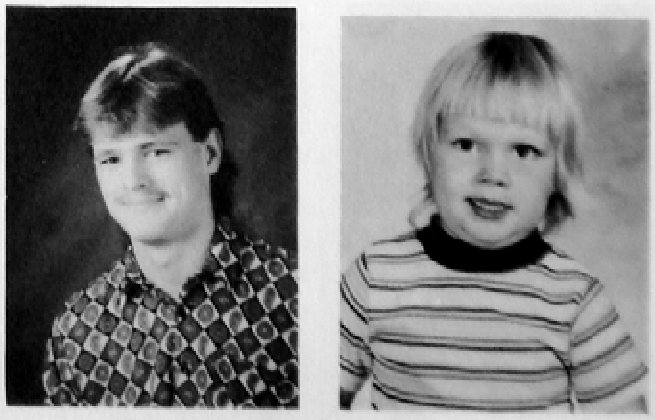
DOUG DAVIS



LYNN DEAN



DAVID DILLEY



BRAD DUNZ